THE CALL OF THE WORLD.

THE call was never before so insistent. All the world is being aroused to its deep need. Nations are all astir. They are being awakened from their sleep of centuries. Like a child aroused from its slumber, they call for light. Jesus Christ is the light of the world. Without him, all is darkness. He meets all needs; he satisfies all hunger. He is the water of life to all who thirst. All the world calls for him. His word giveth life. He is the world's hope.

The cry from India is piteous. Her teeming millions have waited through the long, dark centuries for the night to pass. Gleams of light have begun to appear on the Eastern sky. The glimpse of a new day, which is now dawning, only gives pathos and strength to her cry. The three millions of Christians in that land, the mother of religions, is a prophecy of a glorious day, which rapidly approaches. Knowing ones believe that Christianity will be her dominant faith within the next century.

The change in China is without a parallel in the history of the race. There have been more significant changes in that land in the past five years than in any other nation; and more in that five years than in the same period in any other nation since the world began. In this time of her wondrous movement she calls long and loud for Christian direction. Her present confusion is her salvation. She is breaking away from her dead past. Now is the time to extend to her a guiding hand.

Japan is on the highway to a Christian civilization. Her rapid advance calls for special thought. Her military power and her increasing wealth will all come to naught without him who is the Prince of Peace. Her call is the common call of the race.

Everywhere the cry comes for better things. Men are turning their faces toward God. Their call is the deep cry of the heart.

We have what men need. Shall we break to them some of the bread that has blessed us? Our bounty is the common need of the race. Our blessings are the common inheritance of all men. The world calls for its birthright.

Our churches ask for larger tasks. They want to do more. They will do more. On the threshold of the new missionary year, we turn our faces hopefully to the future.

EDITORIAL NOTES

¶ "The God of the whole earth shall he be called."

¶ The China Inland Mission has sent out thirty-three new missionaries this year.

¶ In the past year an average of thirty French and Belgian nuns is reported by the Bureau of Immigration as having entered the Philippine Islands each month.

¶ Dr. George E. Miller, of Mungeli, India, has been down with typhoid fever. At the last report he was much better. He has gained enough in strength to go to the hills to recuperate.

¶ The American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions reports $1,032,000 raised this year. The Congregationalists are a great missionary people. The American Board is the oldest Board on the continent and has had a great history.

¶ E. W. Hunt, in Missions, says: "The man who so overstrains his moral energy in shouting some denominational shibboleth that he has n't enough left to lift a dollar out of his pocket for the evangelization of the world has something still to learn about what constitutes a New Testament Church."

¶ Mrs. A. L. Shelton has written a book entitled "Sunshine and Shadow on the Tibetan Border." The title is significant. The sunshine comes first. There is shadow, too, but it is of less consequence than the sunshine. Those who have heard Dr. Shelton's great missionary addresses will want to read this book.

¶ Plans for a great series of rallies are being formed. In these rallies the claims of the gospel are brought home to the hearts and consciences of many thousands who never attend the National Convention. The rally is a National Convention in miniature. Those who attend and participate are greatly helped and blessed.

¶ A deficit is a serious hindrance to the work. Its removal is a grave necessity. The deficit has been caused because the work on the field has grown more rapidly than the receipts at home. The Lord is multiplying and enriching us so that we are well able to wipe out the deficit and to greatly enlarge the work.

¶ A long-felt need is at last being realized at the University of Nanking. The old buildings put up in the early nineties, though still in good condition, have been outgrown, and the Science Department has had to endure every kind of inconvenience. The new Science Hall satisfies this need and provides ample room for every department. The building is 122 feet long, 72 feet broad, and three stories high.

¶ Prof. A. W. Taylor, of the Missouri Bible College, has written a book for the Society entitled, "The Social Work of Christian Missions." This book is especially prepared for Mission Study classes, but can be read with profit by all classes of people. Prof. Taylor shows how social conditions have been modified and improved by the missionaries. This work is a mine of information about the changes that have been wrought.

¶ The Bishop of Newcastle said that he did not think "English church folk had yet grasped the place that foreign missions ought to take in every individual life, in every family, in every church. They ought to rank not as one of a great many other claimants that demanded interest, money, and men; they ought to stand quite above, far above everything else. Let other things take their place in order of precedence, but not missionary work, for missionary work was 'the' work of the church."

¶This is a white ant of India. It is one of the great enemies of foreign missions. It destroys houses, furniture, books, clothing, etc. You can not measure its power of destructiveness by the size. Premi Bai, one of our Christian women at Bilaspur, drew this picture.

¶The Chinese Recorder states that at so late a date as 1897 there were in all the Empire but thirty-one boardng schools for Chinese girls. Most of these schools were of the elementary grade, and nearly all gave board and tuition free. In some cases the clothing and books were also given the students. At that time it was difficult to induce a Chinese girl to take part in the simplest calisthenics, whilst the parents seemed to consider it foolishness and waste of time. Now, no school is at all popular unless varied forms of physical drill are conducted, preference being given to the newest and most difficult.

¶"Be it known, therefore, unto you that this salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles: they will also hear." This was the language of Paul, the greatest missionary of all time. He preached the gospel throughout the Roman Empire and planted churches in many centers. He saw the first-fruits among the Gentiles. If he were alive to-day he could say with the prophet, "All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God." Continents that had not been discovered when Paul was alive are now rejoicing in the light of the gospel of the glory of God.

My dear Brother McLean:

The word has just reached me of the triumphant close of the year's work. I do indeed rejoice before the Lord in the splendid gain the year records. Under all the conditions the result surely reveals the good hand of our God leading us on. The workers at the front will be wonderfully cheered, and the confidence of native converts greatly strengthened. And surely the Master himself is glad. I can hardly wait for the morrow to tell our people in the great congregation of the glorious ongoings of the work, that they may rejoice with me.

Affectionately your brother,

Chas. S. Medbury.

¶The Society needs two medical men for Africa. It has been searching for these men for three years without finding them. There is no other field in the world where a medical man can do more good. He can have a hundred patients the day he arrives and opens his dispensary. While healing the sick he can preach the gospel and teach the people many things they need to know. There are thousands of young physicians in America waiting for a practice. Here the practice is calling for men. The friends of the work are requested to pray the Lord of the harvest to apprehend some of these young physicians and to thrust them into his service.

¶On the 17th of August, Donald Crawford, of New Glasgow, P. E. I., passed to his reward. At the time of his death he was ninety-one years of age. He had preached for over half a century in New Glasgow and in other parts of the Island. What was said of Barnabas could be as appropriately said of him, "He was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and faith, and much people was added unto the Lord." Quite a large number of his converts have entered the Christian ministry. Donald Crawford was a saint, if there was ever a saint on this earth. He was a friend of every good work. He loved the Lord and delighted greatly in his service. Mrs. Crawford, the gracious woman who loved him and cared for him for so many years, survives him and mourns his departure.

¶The following is an extract from the article by Adachi Kinnosike, in the September Century Magazine, on "Christian Missions in Japan:" "Fifty years ago there was no such expression as 'religious freedom' in the entire range of Nippon literature. To-day the phrase has been written into the Constitution of the land. Less than fifty years ago, if you wished to have a free fight on the spot, without loss of time, all that you had to do was to call a gentleman a 'Yaso'—that is to say, 'Jesus.' And to-day? Admiral Uriu, who battered the fine Russian cruiser Variag in the harbor of Chemulpo, is a Christian; and many other officers of the navy and army of Japan of to-day are proud to be called 'Yaso.' The editors of some of the leading metropolitan dailies are Christians. In 1890, when the Imperial Diet was convened for the first time in the history of Japan, the House of Representatives had a Christian for its president. His Majesty the Emperor of Japan contributes regularly to the funds of the Young Men's Christian Association. To-day no one can irritate a Japanese by calling him 'Yaso.' These are some of the fruits of the missionary work in Japan. Not the fruits, however."

¶Early in 1819, while waiting to see a patient, a young physician in New York took up and read a tract on Missions which lay in the room where he sat. On reaching home he spoke to his wife of the question that had arisen in his mind. As a result, they set out for Ceylon, and later India, as foreign missionaries. For thirty years the wife, and for thirty-six the husband, labored among the heathen, and then went to their reward. Apart from what they did directly as missionaries, they left behind them seven sons and two daughters. Each of these sons married, and with their wives, and both sisters, gave themselves to the same mission work. Already have several grandchildren of the first missionary become missionaries in India. And thus far thirty of that family—the Scudders—have given five hundred and twenty-nine years to India missions.

¶Our missionaries in China write that China is facing a famine many times greater than the one of last year. The region affected extends along the Yangtse for more than a thousand miles. For many years the river has not risen as high as it has this year. Our Mission is right in the midst of it. The entire town on the river bank at Nanking is under water, and has been for two months, and will be for days yet. In Wuhu Dr. Osgood and Alexander Paul have gone the length of the main street. The water is over it all with the exception of a few yards directly in front of the church. They went in tubs, on improvised board-walks, on the backs of men, in boats and jinrikishas. Our Mission is the only one in that city that can carry on its work at this time. Across the river the waters form a great sea, from sixty to eighty miles square. There is no land in sight. The people have fled to the hills. There is much sickness, and many will be starving shortly. Chaohsien can be entered only by climbing over the city walls. Wu-wei-cheo is flooded also. Our chapel there is entirely destroyed. The evangelist has been living in a mat shed. One of his children has died as a result, and the rest are real sick. Many sick and starving refugees from the famine last year are still coming to the hospitals in Nanking and Chuchow. Dr. Butchart will have them at his door this fall. The need is very great and urgent. Those who are disposed to help can send their contributions to F. M. Rains, Box 884, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Larger Things.

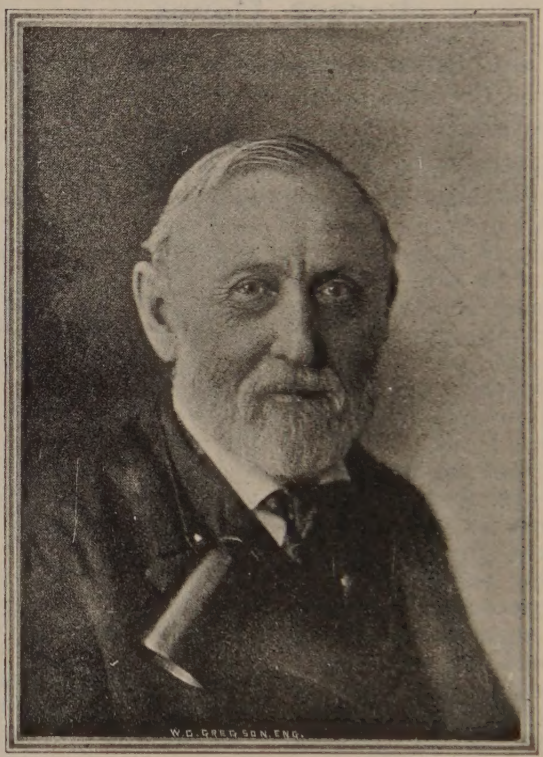

The Disciples of Christ are now a great people. The Lord has multiplied us and has greatly increased our wealth. Before the Civil War Isaac Errett said that we were dangerously rich. We are ten thousand times as rich now as we were then. Alexander Campbell said that we had wealth enough to do a great missionary work if only we had large and liberal hearts. There is no comparison between our wealth now and what is was in Alexander Campbell's time. God has put it into our power to do far more than we have ever attempted or even dreamed of doing.

There has been encouraging growth since the beginning. The growth has far exceeded all that the founders of our organized work expected or imagined. We are represented now on all the great mission fields of the world. The sun never sets on the work we are doing in the name of our Lord. While we have every reason for rejoicing over what we have done, we have none for boasting. We have not begun to put forth our strength; we have not and are not now giving as the Lord has prospered us. We are able to do far larger things than we are doing. This will be self-evident when we remember that we are not giving over one dollar on an average for all our missionary and benevolent enterprises combined. No one who knows the facts will affirm that two cents a week is a large or worthy amount for us to give for the extension of the boundaries of the Redeemer's Kingdom. The divine law is, "Where much has been given, there much shall be required." We have received much, and we are receiving more and more each year; there can be no doubt as to that fact. It is for us to show that we are faithful stewards of God's manifold grace by doing more and more continually.

For several years the Foreign Society in Convention assembled resolved to raise a half a million dollars annually for its work. The Convention was not willing to set a lower standard than this. Thus far we have not raised the amount named in the Watchword. This is not to our credit. We can not claim that we have done what we were able to do. We have received freely; but we have not given freely. We have not honored the Lord with our substance and with the first-fruits of all our increase. Had we done so, the half million mark would have been passed long ago. We are able to give a million a year for Foreign Missions and to give in like generous measure for every other work the Lord wants us to do in his name and for his glory.

As we enter upon a new year it should be with the determination to go far beyond anything we have yet done. This should be a record year in our missionary undertakings. We shall not be impoverished, but enriched rather, if we do this. If we give it shall be given to us, good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over. We should bear in mind that our God is able to make all grace abound toward us, that we, always having all sufficiency in every thing, may abound unto every good work.

Character of the Work.

J. W. MCGARVEY.

The work of the Foreign Christian Missionary Society has a worth beyond what any human being can now adequately estimate. It is planting churches of the primitive order here and there in heathen lands as such churches were planted by the apostles and the early evangelists. And as the latter churches, with few exceptions, lived on and grew, until they finally attained such power as to control the religious sentiments of the ancient world, so the former will live and grow until the modern world will come under their spiritual dominion. But this modern world is so much greater than the so-called world of the ancients, both in its known territory and its actual population, that there is scarcely any comparison between them. It is an incomparably greater world also in its power to glorify God by exalting all the faculties of humanity; and from this point of view more than from any other will its subjugation to the reign of Christ rise in importance above the achievements of the ancient church. The men and women who are planting these feeble churches now are really laying the foundations of spiritual empires, in which their names will be loved and remembered as now we remember the names of those who first visited with the gospel the various provinces that have since grown into the Christian nations of the modern world. The man who to-day endeavors to take into his comprehension the greatness and glory awaiting our Great Republic is bewildered by the prospect; how much more the man who attempts to comprehend the varied glories of that coming age when all the kingdoms of the world will be the kingdoms of our Lord and his Christ. With this as the outcome, an outcome that passes knowledge, what other men on earth have so much reason for courage amid their toil as those who are spending and being spent for foreign missions?

The Opportunity for the School Teacher.

W. B. ALEXANDER.

Among natives of wealth, ability, and influence in this land of India, it is yet a rare thing to find those who, having the power, are willing to provide schools for the children of the poor, downtrodden, ignorant people that constitute the low castes.

Living in the midst of these deplorable conditions which arouse the American to assert himself in behalf of these poor children, five years ago your missionary, Miss Josepha Franklin, opened the first and only school in the Damoh District of 200,000 people in which children of the lowest castes have an opportunity to learn to read and write. At that time only sixty or seventy dollars per year were available for this work, and for five years the work has been maintained on the meager yearly allowance equivalent to a single month's salary of a good primary grade teacher in America. From the opening of the school the little mud hut, which is not only the schoolhouse, but also the home of the schoolmaster and his family, has been crowded with low-caste children who are debarred from the Government schools by the social customs of the land.

In this little mud house hundreds of our boys have been drilled in the teachings of Jesus Christ, and they have had an opportunity to see a practical application of his teachings in that they have had opportunity to learn reading, writing, and arithmetic. These boys have proven worthy of a chance to learn. Last year thirteen boys from this school came to our Orphanage school and, after a year's work, became candidates in the Government Primary School Examination. This year one of them is teaching in the mud schoolhouse at a salary of one dollar per month. Because of social customs, the others have returned to the work of their fathers—that of sweepers and leather workers. They are sure to become leaders among their people for they can read, write, and figure, and their influence will be for good because there has been instilled into their young minds a sense of right and wrong and a new idea of cleanliness and of domestic life.

Friends, it is by seeing conditions in this Eastern land that one comes to a just appreciation of the school teacher and his work. If there is a class of persons who can stand approved before God on the merit of their work, it is the school teachers. Although the work you teachers are doing in your own land is so entirely praiseworthy, yet there is a "second mile" you may travel and which will add infinitely to the glory of your life of service.

Why can not some devoted American teacher interest the teachers of the community or the pupils of his city or country school in providing a fund to erect in Damoh, India, a school building to accommodate two or three hundred of these oppressed children?

The erection of a permanent stone or brick building in India costs little less than in America, but if necessary temporary mud buildings can be built at small cost. To secure a site and erect a school building in Damoh similar to Government school buildings requires at least one thousand dollars. Five hundred dollars will build a building that will many times increase the possibilities of Damoh's school for low-caste boys.

The Foreign Christian Missionary Society, of Cincinnati, can acquaint you with the work being done in Damoh. The present superintendent of the school, W. B. Alexander, Damoh, C. P., India, will gladly give particulars concerning the school, its accomplishments and its future possibilities.

A New Opportunity.

HERBERT SMITH.

Two traders sat one evening at our table for supper. They had just returned from a month's trip up the river beyond the Lotumbe station. The conversation naturally turned to the people and country they had seen. They told us that they had entered a small river four hours' steaming above Lotumbe, and proceeded six days up the river. The river was full of snags, and had to be cleared before they could pass. At length they came to a place where a big tree had fallen over the narrow river and blocked their path. They could proceed no farther, but they had accomplished their purpose. They, like the missionary, want to see people. They saw thousands of them, and these traders determined to establish a trading post up this narrow and almost unnavigable river. This story interested us exceedingly, of a people who never before had seen a steamer, or a trader, or a missionary; only the officers of the State had they seen. All they knew about the white man, his way, his country, his teaching, they had learned from State officers. We wished to see these people and tell them of the message of life. But it was impossible for us to leave Lotumbe on such a long trip, so we sent Efoloko, one of our evangelists. Upon his return he told us the following story. He said: "Well, white man, it took us nine days to reach the place where the big tree stopped the traders' steamer. The Lokolo River is narrow and very swift, almost a torrent at places. It rained every day, and we made slow progress in our canoe. The paddlers got tired, and some of them wanted to return because they were wet and we did n't see anybody to buy food from. But at last we saw a few people, then more, then more, and then, white man," and the speaker put his hand over his mouth to show his surprise,

"we saw thousands and thousands. They asked us, 'Why have you come?' We replied, 'To tell about God and his Son Jesus. God loves all people, and he sent his Son to die for us because he loves us.' 'Well,' they said, 'if you have a message like that, come and sit down and tell us about it.' Then we taught them, and taught them all about the gospel. We had meetings for everybody, and in the homes we taught morning, noon, and night. At length the old chief there said, 'You are the first man from down river who has ever come to tell me such a story. (Efoloko is from Bolenge.) I believe your message. I am getting old now; but I have a great many wives. I will put away the younger ones and keep the older ones, and then I will become a Christian.' 'No,' I said, 'that won't do. It has to be settled with God. What he says, we must do. It is not a palaver for me to settle.' 'Well,' he said, 'you are different from the Catholic teachers. If you had come here telling us not to believe the Catholics and to drive them all away, we would not have allowed you to stay a day.'

"Then they wanted to know if we taught the 'Bocwa' people—the slave people. They were very much surprised when we said that they could become Christians. 'What!' they insisted, 'God loves the "Bocwa" people! Why, they exceed in lying, in stealing and cheating; they stay in the forest all day, and only come out at night to steal.' We replied God had saved many of them, and they marveled exceedingly. But the 'Bocwa' people themselves gathered around and wanted to be taught the things of God. They were very glad when they knew the gospel was for them also. The time came for us to return to Lotumbe, but the people did not want us to return. We said that we would come again, may be, in six months or a year. 'Why,' they said, 'if you wait that long, some of us will die. You come to us again soon.' Then they chose twelve of their number to return with us, and their parting words to these twelve were: 'You go to Lotumbe. Get baptized as soon as you can. If the white men can't send us teachers, you come back and tell us what you know, even if you only know a very little. We do n't want to be in the dark any longer."

These twelve men are at Lotumbe. They are seeking to know God's Word. I believe they are in earnest. We hope and pray they may soon be able to return to their own people.

The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few.

News from Australia.

THEO. B. FISCHER.

The work under the Foreign Missionary Committee has never been under more favorable prospects than at the present time. The annual offering exceeded all the previous annual offerings, in many cases the churches doubling and trebling their last offering. The aim of £2,775 was placed before the churches last year and they gave £3,003, this year we raised the standard to £3,300 and are likely to reach it. This month we are farewelling Mr. and Mrs. H. Watson, who will work on our Australian Station at Baramati, India. Both of these workers have spent some years in India and are fluent in the language, and Mrs. Watson has nursing training. They have recently toured some of the churches, and have created a deep impression. Our missionaries at Baramati have obtained a lease of a building in the center of the town, and they will use it as a reading room and stock it with Christian literature, and also make it a depot for meeting enquirers. We have also accepted Mr. F. G. Goodwin and Miss Young for service on the Island of Aoba in the South Seas. Mr. Goodwin is from the Australian College of the Bible, and will prove a great acquisition to our missionary staff. Miss Young, who will go out as the wife of Mr. Goodwin, has taken three years' training in the Angus College, S. A., and latterly has taken a little medical work in Melbourne, Vic. Unfortunately the health of Mr. Purdy, our present missionary at Aoba, has been unsatisfactory for some time past, and they are compelled to leave the Islands. Mr. Goodwin will, therefore, take up work that Mr. Purdy will leave. We are looking forward also to the return, on furlough, of Mr. and Mrs. Filmer, from the Island of Pentecost.

Children's Day Exercises are now being practiced by our Bible schools, and promise to be a success. The title of this year's Exercises is "Sarubai," the story of a Hindoo girl, one of God's own.

Thirty-Sixth Annual Report.

REPORT OF THE HOME DEPARTMENT.

With a keen sense of gratitude and a prayer of thanksgiving to God, we present to the Churches of Christ this report for the Missionary year 1910-11. Our feeble faith has again been rebuked. The Centennial year was a high water mark, and then last year surprised with an increase over the Centennial of more than $10,000. With the many problems this year—the drought in the West, and the rather close condition in the business world, we greatly feared a serious falling off in receipts. Such has not been the case, however. The gifts have come in a most surprising way during the closing weeks of the year. We are happy to report an increase over the receipts of last year of $18,369.91. We were assured early in the year that the record of blessings on the Mission fields would be unprecedented, so that in every way we can say that the year just closed is much the greatest in the history of the Society.

THE RECORD BROKEN ON THE FIELDS.

This has been the banner year on the mission fields. The favor of God has been upon the work and the workers. There were 2,011 baptisms on the different fields—two hundred more than last year. This is a gain of twenty per cent for the year. There are now over five thousand pupils under instruction in the ninety-five different schools and colleges of the Society. There are 295 young men studying for the ministry, a gain of 66 over last year. There were 16,200 in the Sunday Schools in Mission fields, a gain over last year of nearly 4,000. The Missionaries from each field report a very hopeful outlook for the future.

THE YEAR'S INCOME.

The total receipts for the year amount to $379,082.03, a gain over last year of $18,369.91, as indicated above. The following table shows the sources of income and the total receipts for the year ending September 30, 1911, as compared with last year:

CHURCH OFFERINGS.

The Churches as such made a small gain over last year. The amount this year is $139,501.20, which is $1,402.72 more than for 1909-10. The majority of the Churches have responded loyally. One of the greatest problems of the work is to enlist the giving of a larger number of congregations. The average contributions of the Churches has increased splendidly. It now stands at $46 a Church.

SUNDAY SCHOOL OFFERINGS.

The total offerings from the Sunday Schools are somewhat disappointing. When it is remembered, however, that last year they made the great gain of $13,000 over the year before, and then consider that the drought in the West was at its height at the time of the Children's Day offering, the loss of $7,210 this year does not come with as great a surprise. The total amount given by the Sunday Schools for this year is $83,041.35. The Sunday Schools have contributed since the institution of Children's Day more than $1,100,000.

INDIVIDUAL GIFTS.

Here is where the record has been broken this year. Individuals have given by far the greatest amount for any year in the history of the Society. Contributions from this source have amounted to $55,178.92, a gain over last year of $25,730. Even during the Centennial year, when the Bible Colleges in the Philippines and Africa, and the steamer for the Congo were provided by individual gifts, the amount was $7,000 less than this year. It must be remembered, however, that the most of these individual gifts go for special buildings and equipment, and can not be used for the expenses of the regular work.

THE ENDEAVOR SOCIETIES.

There has been a slight decrease in the amount from this source this year. The sum contributed is $11,287.90, a decrease of $322.13. The Christian Endeavorers have done well, for it must be remembered that nearly all of the members of these Societies also contributed for Mission work through the Churches and Sunday Schools.

THE ANNUITY GIFTS.

The Annuity gifts show a loss when compared with the exceptionally large amount received from this source last year. The income from this source is $46,790, a decrease of $7,944.03.

THE FORCE.

M. B. Madden and family, of Japan; D. E. Dannenberg and family, of China, and Dr. Mary T. McGavran, of India, have returned to their work on the field. John G. McGavran and family have postponed their return to India for one year. This was on account of the children, who are too young to be left in America and too old to be taken to India. H. P. Shaw and wife have resigned. Mrs. Shaw's health has failed, and three physicians have given it as their opinion that she must live in a different climate if she is to live at all. At the request of the China Committee, C. B. Titus has been recalled from China. Miss Nellie J. Clark, of China, has resigned on account of ill health. She may be able to return to the field later. Dr. Dye was not in good physical condition when he returned to Bolenge after his strenuous year at home. He returned home, and will help in the campaign of education. R. S. Wilson overtaxed his strength in rebuilding the Oregon. His physician insisted that it was necessary for him to return to a cooler climate, if he would save his life. He and his family are now at home.

NEW MISSIONARIES.

Owing to the lack of funds, only such workers as were absolutely necessary have been appointed and sent out. D. C. McCallum and wife were sent to the Philippines. They take the place and work of Hermon P. Williams and wife at Vigan. Guy W. Sarvis and wife were sent to China, to teach in the University of Nanking. Miss Nina Palmer was sent to Nanking to be associated with Miss Lyon in the Woman's College. H. A. Baker and wife were appointed and are preparing to join the little group at Batang, on the border of Tibet. Dr. L. B. Kline and wife are under appointment for the Philippines. The Macedonian calls for help were never before so numerous and urgent. On every field the staff could be doubled to the advantage of the work. The progress of the gospel is hindered because, while the harvest truly is plenteous, the laborers are few.

SPECIAL APPROPRIATIONS.

One hundred dollars was granted the Men and Religion Forward Movement. That movement, it is believed, will assist the Society in enlisting men and churches in its work. On this account the appropriation was considered legitimate. The sum of five dollars for each missionary in Japan, for religious literature, was granted. Three hundred and thirty-three dollars was appropriated for a piece of ground in Harda for the new hospital. Fifteen hundred dollars was granted for a home for Miss Alma Favors, at Luchowfu, China. Two thousand dollars was granted for a station near Jubbulpore, India. This station was owned by the Church of England Zenana Mission. The enlargement of the work in Jubbulpore required the purchase of this property.

THE STEAMSHIP OREGON.

By all accounts the Oregon is a great success. She is the handsomest and the best boat on the Congo. She requires less fuel, and is handled more easily than any other boat. The Oregon is a great convenience to the missionaries. She takes them from station to station, and in much less time and with much greater comfort than before. The Oregon is invaluable to the African Mission.

AUSTRALIA'S CO-OPERATION.

As in other years, the churches in Australia have assisted the work of the Society. They have supported Miss Mary Thompson and M. J. Shah in India; Miss Rosa L. Tonkin in China, and P. A. Davey and wife in Japan. This co-operation has been most cordial and most delightful to all concerned. The work of the churches in Australasia is being fully reported in the publications of the Society. The increase in interest and in contributions of the brethren beneath the Southern Cross is most gratifying.

THE BROTHERHOOD CAMPAIGN.

The Brotherhood sent a team to visit the principal centers in the interest of all the work of the churches. M. B. Madden, of Japan, represented the Foreign Society on the team. A service was held in the afternoon, to which all the churches in the vicinage were invited. There was a banquet at night, and this was followed by short and stirring addresses by the members of the team. The aim of the campaign was to reach the men in the churches. Such a campaign must bear good fruit.

F. M. RAIN'S VISIT TO THE FIELDS.

Mr. and Mrs. Rains spent a year visiting the fields. They sailed from San Francisco, and visited Honolulu, Australia, India, the Philippines, China, Japan, and Korea. It was their purpose to visit the stations on the Congo and the Bosira, but were not able to do so. They were received everywhere with the utmost cordiality and affection. Because of this visit the work on the fields is better understood by the managers at home, and the attitude of the managers is better understood by the missionaries. Nothing could have exceeded the gracious hospitality of the brethren in Australia. Great and lasting good will come from this visit. The only regrettable feature of it is that Mr. Rains was not in as good condition on his return as he was when he started a year ago.

PERSIA AND KOREA.

Dr. John Sergis, a graduate of Drake University, has been at work as a physician and evangelist in Persia for eight years. He has built up a congregation of about a hundred members in Oroomiah. At his own request he was appointed a missionary of the Society. He receives no salary; he supports himself by his profession. He will report progress from time to time.

When in Korea Mr. Rains found a little church. This church is made up for the most part of believers from Japan. One of the members is going to attend Drake College to prepare himself for the pastoral oversight of that church. This church is an offshoot of the Japan Mission. It is independent and self-supporting. The facts are published as a matter of general interest.

LITERATURE.

In its campaign of education the Society has made good use of literature. The following books have been sold: "A Concise History of the Foreign Society," "Breaking Down Chinese Walls," "Bolenge," "Under the Shadow of the Drum Tower," "Where the Book Speaks," "The Why and How of Foreign Missions," "Uganda's White Man of Work," "Under Marching Orders," "Opals from Africa," "A Message from Batang." "Under the Shadow of the Drum Tower" is a new work about the Mission in China. It was written by Mrs. Laura D. Garst. "A Message from Batang" is the diary of Dr. Loftis. He wrote of the things that impressed him most on his journey from Nashville to Batang. Mrs. A. L. Shelton copied the diary for the printer. The Fleming H. Revell Company published the work at their own risk.

THE MISSIONARY INTELLIGENCER.

The Intelligencer is the organ of the Society. It is the only publication in the world that gives a complete and accurate account each month of the work of the missionaries in the field and by the agents at home. The editors endeavor to make each number an improvement on all its predecessors. The numerous commendations received in the Mission Rooms justify the belief that the readers find in The Intelligencer the information and the inspiration they need. Many subscribers preserve and bind The Intelligencer. The twelve numbers make a handsome volume. This work will grow in value continually.

LIVING LINKS.

A Living Link Church is one that provides the salary of its own Missionary on the foreign field. There has been an increase this year of sixteen new Living-link Churches. There is a growing interest in this plan of Missionary support. Many other Churches are planning for this step, and no doubt next year will witness a large number more enter this class. The following are the names of the Living Link Churches and groups of Churches supporting Missionaries under the Foreign Society. Those marked with a star are the new Living Link Churches for this year.

Several of the Churches have increased their offerings so that they can be classed as double Living Links, having grown enough to support two Missionaries. There are a great number of smaller Churches whose offering, while not reaching the Living-link rank, is fully as worthy.

Many who can not give much to foreign missions while alive, through a bequest to The Foreign Christian Missionary Society may extend their influence many years. This important matter is often neglected, however. It is no trivial thing to make a will. The drawing up of such an instrument should be fraught with great moral dignity. Personality is capable of no more righteous and influential deed than the devout, thoughtful execution of a will. It is an act, neither to be superstitiously avoided nor carelessly neglected. Property or money is power in the concrete, and through a WILL this power may be extended into the endless future in usefulness. It is possible for a person to cease his own activity, and yet through a will to go on doing good for centuries to come.

It is well for us to remember that what we possess is not our own. Our very souls have been bought with a price, and we can not claim proprietorship to our wealth. It all belongs to God, and we are stewards of His property. In the light of this truth, how necessary that our possessions be willed sacredly as He desires.

THE DEFICIT.

A year ago the deficit was $39,213.00. The facts concerning the deficit were set forth at length. Nothing was withheld. It was shown that the deficit had been growing for three years. The receipts had not kept pace with the increasing demands arising from the rapid and resistless growth of the work. Everything that the Committee could do to lessen the expenditures and to increase the receipts was done. No missionaries except such as were absolutely necessary have been sent to the fields. No new buildings have been provided except where funds were specially given for the purpose. Not only so, but the current expenses have been cut ten per cent. The Committee was determined to keep the expenditures within the Society's income if at all possible.

But with the most economical management the deficit has not been reduced. On the contrary, it has grown till at the present time it amounts to $58,000. The annual outlay exceeds the regular receipts by about $18,000. The increase in the receipts this year over last year amounts to this sum; but this increase has been in special funds and not in the General Fund. Many like to give for some particular object with which their names can be associated. The friends of the work should know that the General Fund is the fund out of which all the regular obligations must be paid, and therefore, the fund that needs special attention. There must be an increase of $25,000 a year in the General Fund if the Society is to meet its obligations promptly and owe no man and no bank anything but love. An increase in the General Fund will honor God and advance the interests of the Kingdom and bless our own souls.

It should cheer our hearts to know that the Society has had a marvelous history. Perhaps no other society in the world has been so free from debt in all the years of its existence. It has passed through one panic after another, and has met every obligation. The deficit is a small matter, compared with the large deficits carried by the older and larger societies year after year. It is not a serious matter from any point of view. There are single congregations that have larger debts to care for, and are not alarmed by them.

The situation must be faced with a determination to increase the receipts in the new year so that the debt will be paid, and so that the present work may be carried on as its needs require, and so that new missionaries may be sent out and new fields entered in the name of God. This deficit is a challenge to our faith and to our consecration. It should be a light thing for a people as numerous and as rich in resources as the Disciples of Christ to increase their contributions for foreign missions to the extent of $50,000 a year. Dr. Rufus Anderson, of the American Board, has said that every long stride in advance taken by that board was taken as a result of a debt. The Churches arose in their might and paid off the debt, and ever after continued to give on a larger scale than before, that there might be no other debt incurred. If we address ourselves resolutely and rejoicingly to the present situation the present deficit will prove a means of grace to us all, and to the work at home and abroad.

THE DEAD.

The following have gone to their reward: F. D. Power, District of Columbia; Mrs. Lathrop Cooley, Ohio; G. W. Ross, Illinois; B. F. Coulter, California; J. W. McGarvey, Kentucky; Donald Crawford, Prince Edward Island; H. H. Moninger, Ohio; Addison Clark, Texas; Abraham Plunkett, Indiana; A. J. Elliott and H. T. Morrison, Illinois. Others have ceased from their labors, but their names have not been reported. The Lord knows his own, and he is not unrighteous to forget their work of faith and labor of love. Each year some of the most devoted friends of the cause are called to higher scenes and services; that means that others must take their places and carry on their work.

BILASPUR.

Evangelistic.—H. C. Saum baptized thirteen during the year, and received a number from other congregations. The Christians in this station gave during the year for church expenses $58.50, and for missions $35.50. This is an increase over the previous year. Mr. Saum spent much of his time in touring. The people in the district are mostly low caste and very poor. There is a village of 500 that would become Christians at once, were they assured of the fact that some work would be provided for them. The moment a man becomes a Christian he is boycotted along all lines imaginable. The most serious proposition is, To what extent shall we give them aid? and, What shall be the nature of that assistance? In Dorki village most of the Christians returned to caste, owing to the difficulties in making a living, and a failure of the Mission to render material aid. We hope to regain them. While the villagers are usually illiterate, there were a goodly number of Bible portions and religious tracts sold in this district. Many of the village Christians were oppressed by the landlords, and this has much to do with others failing to accept Christ. Some of the Mulguzars refuse to give land upon which the Mission may build schools and chapels. Thirty-five dollars worth of seed grain was loaned to the Christian farmers during the year. The land-owners exact large returns for such loans. Mr. Eicher reports seven Sunday schools, with an enrollment of 438 students during the year.

Schools.—While practically all Christian parents can neither read nor write, yet they are beginning to take quite an interest in the education of their children. We have here about two hundred children of school-going age. This is the hope of the church. All the schools grew considerably during the year. Education is practically free. Were it not, there would be a tremendous reduction in the number of students. The Birkona Primary School has grown in numbers until the capacity of its building is overtaxed. It has an average enrollment of over one hundred. The Masturi Primary School has had a large increase during the year also. At the beginning of the year this school was closed through the malicious work of a Hindu head master who had been dismissed. There was great opposition to having a Christian family live at that place, but the Christian family kept on the ground, and at the end of the year there was an average attendance of over one hundred scholars. The Christian Master and his wife are exerting a good influence in the town. The school in Bilaspur began paying school fees during the year. There are four schools in this field with an enrollment of 421. Four of the pupils became Christians during the year. Twenty-one dollars and fifty cents were received as school fees for the year; the Government gave as grant-in-aid, $115. The schools were under Mr. Eicher's management.

HARDA.

Evangelistic.—D. O. Cunningham has had charge of this work. The past year has experienced more systematic evangelistic work than has been done in Harda for several years. Mr. J. Shah was in the field all the time, and was well assisted by four other evangelists. There were several large melas visited by about fifteen of our teachers and preachers. The number of religious tracts sold was larger than in any previous year. The bazaar preaching was conducted twice weekly throughout the year in the Harda bazaar. Several villages received the preaching of the Word especially well. Hopes are entertained that definite results will be recorded from some of these places soon. One of the most encouraging features of the year's work has been the exceptionally large number of Scripture portions sold. Special emphasis was laid on this phase of the work. Two services have been held each Lord's day at the Hindustani and English churches. Our Christians gave $54.46 for general church work, and for direct missions $44.74. This is a gain over any previous year. There were two baptisms during the year. We conducted thirteen Sunday schools, with an enrollment of 640 students.

Medical.—Dr. Drummond had charge of this work. The attendance at the hospital and dispensary was smaller this year than last. There were two principal causes. First, Miss Fleming was transferred to Damoh, and second, the epidemic of plague was with us again for three months, and in an exceedingly severe form. The town of 18,000 was deserted for several months. However, there was an average daily attendance at the hospital during the year of sixty-six patients. These heard the gospel gladly. Dr. Drummond writes that there has been much encouragement and much discouragement. He was encouraged when he saw the good attention given to the preaching of the Word; discouraged when he was not privileged to see one of them confess his faith in Christ. There were $170 collected in fees, and 11,103 different patients received treatment.

Zenana.—Miss Thompson had charge of this work. She had as assistants during the year, Sarubai and Mrs. Shah. Some of the students' wives visited the nearby villages. For some months the work was carried on by the roadsides and in the fields, owing to plague in town. Twenty women were taught to read, and one hundred homes were regularly visited. Weekly meetings were held for the Christian women, and monthly missionary meetings, which were especially well attended.

Schools.—D. O. Cunningham had charge of this work. He writes, "While it is not easy to tabulate definite results of slow-growing causes or reforms, yet to definitely know that there are life and growth is not speculative." We have here seven Primary, one Middle, and one High School. Bible instruction was given daily in all schools. The teaching staff changed considerably during the year. This is usually due to the master finding a more lucrative position elsewhere. We had 600 students receiving Bible instruction daily. We received as fees during the year $473.50, and from the Government as grant-in-aid, $930. Mrs. Cunningham conducted special classes in Bible and secular subjects for the wives of the High School students. There were ten Christian students in High School. This is the first serious attempt at sending students from the Orphanage for High School training before their entering the Bible College. All the schools were closed three months during the year on account of plague. While the mortality was very great among Hindus and Mohammedans, not one Christian died with the disease.

HATTA.

Evangelistic.—There has been much to encourage the workers in their evangelistic efforts in and around Hatta. The cordial reception given the workers in most of the villages, a willingness to hear the message, especially by men of position, has been a source of no little encouragement. Mr. Sherman writes, "In many cases during our visits to the villages we have learned to know that the message was being heard for the first time." During the first four months of the year Mr. Sherman was in camp among the villagers. A good center was selected, and work carried on in every direction until a radius of five miles was reached. The nearby villages were reached in the morning, and in the evening time was devoted to the village in which the camp was located. During the four months 204 villages were reached. As a rule, the people were illiterate, and on this account there were few gospel tracts sold. Regular bazaar preaching was held in the Hatta bazaar on Monday and Friday afternoons. The little Sunday school of about twenty-seven boys was continued, and the children committed many verses to memory. A Sunday service was held for the Christian Mission helpers.

School.—In June, Miriya and Charonji came from Harda to Hatta and opened a day school. The school was intended primarily for low caste children, since the Government has a first class school in Hatta, but only the high caste are permitted to attend. The school has been fairly successful.

Zenana and Medical Work.—Mrs. Sherman did considerable work by visiting the homes of the villagers and administering simple medicines to the sick. Two little girls were found: one an orphan and the other equally so, for its parents did not want to keep her. These were sent to the Bilaspur orphanage. A large number of sick came to the bungalow during the rainy season for treatment.

JUBBULPORE.

The Bible College.—During the first part of the year the work of the Bible College was carried on by O. J. Grainger, Miss Josepha Franklin, and Vishveshvar Datt. Three young men graduated at the Commencement in May—Jaita, Samuel Bishram, and W. Isaac. Rampha Bai, the wife of Jaita, also did very efficient work in the Bible College, and was granted a certificate on leaving. The scholastic year began July 20th. Mr. Brown, owing to his attendance at the Edinburgh Conference, was late in reaching the field, hence the College opened about three weeks late. At the opening of the new year there were fifteen young men and as many young women enrolled. On the whole, the students were a little dull, but good in character. They applied themselves to their tasks, and will in time make efficient mission workers. Dr. Brown taught the following classes during the year: Old Testament History, New Testament History, Biblical Theology, Psychology, and Hinduism. Miss Franklin taught Bible Geography, Sunday School Teachers' Training, and the women's gymnastic class. She had general oversight of the zenana work also. The practical training of the Bible College women was in the hands of Miss Franklin. Mr. Archer gave a course of lessons on the parables. Vishveshvar Datt has taught the Ramayan and Hindi grammar. Dr. Brown was editor of the Christian Sahayak after his return. The various departments of the paper were assigned to different missionaries for editing.

Sunday Schools.—There were six Sunday schools conducted during the year. One is in the College Building for the Christian students, and the others are in different parts of the city for Hindu and Mohammedan children. Miss Josepha Franklin has had the superintending of the town Sunday schools, which have been taught by the students of the Bible College. Miss Franklin conducted a weekly Sunday school class to which all students and school teachers came. All the first year students of the college, and all of the college women attended the daily teachers' training class. As the international studies taught in the College Sunday school were not adapted to the town Sunday schools, the thirty-five lessons given in Moninger's chart of the Life of Christ have been taught. As yet there are no graded series of lessons in the Hindi language, and as eighty-seven per cent of the children of India never enter a school-house, it can be seen that Sunday school work here is as yet very crude and disorganized.

Women's Training Class and Zenana Work.—Not an unimportant work of the Bible College is the training of the wives of the students. Their practical training in the zenana work has been in the charge of Miss Killoway, the assistant missionary in Jubbulpore. Every woman student goes out twice or three times each week under Miss Killoway's care to gain experience in teaching women in the zenanas. They teach the women reading and writing, and give them a Bible lesson. About forty-five women are thus taught one day in every week. They are taught the same lessons that are given in the weekly teachers' meeting, and in the town Sunday schools.

Mission Press Report.—J. C. Archer, Superintendent of the Mission Press, gives the following report for the year ending March 1, 1911:

"The present value of the press is $4,185.29. This amount includes the values of the new cylinder press. The cost to the Mission for the year's work was $95.36. This, however, includes transportation charges (on the new press) of $92. By deducting that sum the amount left is $3.61. In other words, the cost to the Mission, based on last year's equipment, was about $3.61. About 750,000 pages of vernacular literature was put out during the year. The purely religious matter printed amounted to nearly 1,000,000 pages. The Christian Sahayak was issued weekly, the average weekly issue being about 640 copies. Fourteen hundred Sunday school lesson leaflets were published weekly. The actual cost for a year of 650 Sahayaks and 1,400 Sunday school leaflets is about $450. The Sahayak subscription charges yield nearly $200. There is practically nothing realized from ads. So the actual loss to the Press for the year is about $250. This should be taken into account in connection with the yearly Press deficit. The work has been considerably enlarged by the addition of the new machine. Thereby there will be more concern, eventually, for the management, and possibly more apparent strain on Mission funds."

MUNGELI.

Evangelistic.—The evangelistic work has received special attention this past year. Five evangelists have been employed all their time. Hundreds of villages have been visited and many have heard the gospel for the first time. The people have heard with pleasure. In some parts the work looks very encouraging, and our hopes are high that in a short time many will come to Christ. In one village which the workers have frequently visited four men, heads of families, have assured us that they are ready to come, but are waiting for other members of the family to come with them. One of these men has gone out among the leading men in other villages (all members of their family), and has been pleading for them to come. The names of all these are on file, and we are now making special efforts with them. The church has been carried on without any break throughout the year. In four places each Sunday the Lord's Supper has been observed and regular services held. Our churches are showing a steady growth in Christian living; we have had more volunteers for evangelistic work from among the church members than ever before. We have had to handle fewer cases of immorality than in any previous year. There has of late years been a steady emigration from this part of the country over to Calcutta, and our church has suffered somewhat from this. During the year there were fourteen baptisms. The Sunday schools have been well attended. Many scholars took the All-India Sunday school examination. The Christian Endeavor has held its meetings regularly, and has made good progress, proving itself very helpful to our younger members. In addition we have had house prayer meetings, also Bible classes for our helpers. Sickness has laid a heavy hand on us this last year. Our most reliable and godly native worker, Manik Lal, was called up higher. On his deathbed he remembered the Lord's work, and asked his wife to tell us it was his wish to leave $13.33 for the Kota work. This money has been paid. We rejoice very much over this, for we feel sure it will lead others to remember the Master's cause. For days we despaired of Mrs. Rioch, but the Lord has been gracious to us.

Schools.—We have here five day schools with an enrollment of 430. The Bible is taught to all daily, and the children have memorized verses from the Old and New Testaments. There are a number of new places asking for schools, but owing to the lack of men and money we are unable to grant the requests. We believe in schools, because the seed sown in young hearts is sure to bring a harvest some day.

Leper Work.—The leper asylums have been full almost all the year. We have had as many as 105 here at one time. Daily these poor sufferers have the gospel preached to them. We rejoice that there are but four outside the Kingdom. These will come when they have been taught. We have lost by death a number of our old lepers. We have witnessed much awful suffering, and at the same time wonderful Christian patience and courage among them. These lepers are all supported by the Mission to Lepers and a grant from Government. The only expense to the Mission is a little of the missionary's time and strength. The Christian village and farm have had a good year, as crops have been good.

Medical.—Dr. Miller writes that there were 9,331 patients treated at Mungeli and the out-station, Barela, during the year. One of the chief features at the hospital and dispensary was the giving of the gospel message to all who came for medicine. Tickets were given to those who were present at the gospel service, and those were given medicine first. Usually a second meeting was necessary. The series of lessons used by the evangelists and hospital helpers were those given in the medical missionary handbook issued by the Medical Association of India. These subjects are timely, well arranged, and most convincing. The people in and around Mungeli have faith in the work that is being done, and not a few have acknowledged the truth of the claims of the gospel. The hospital is doing its share of the teaching in preparing the people to break away from caste, and openly confess their faith in Christ. At Christmas time a week was spent at the out-station at Barela, and a number of people were treated and two operations performed. Among those treated during the year was a little child brought by its mother to the hospital. The child was in a very bad condition, but the mother brought the child faithfully for three months, a most unusual thing for an Indian to do. As a result, her child was cured, and now she comes to us as soon as any of her relatives are ill, often bringing new patients with her. She brought one young woman whom she thought was possessed with demons, saying that she had no love for her newborn child. Medicine was given, and she was told that the spirits would be sure to go. Simple suggestion worked the desired cure. Another man came who said that he was troubled with seven demons, and sometimes they beat him on the chest. He was told to take the medicine and the demons would leave him. As he never came back, it is supposed that he was freed from them. A very interesting case was that of a man who had pneumonia. The people were alarmed and amazed when Dr. Miller injected quinine into his arm and applied cold water to his head. They thought the disease was caused by cold, therefore more cold would make him worse. The doctor's fame soon spread over the town. The man was cured, but not a whit of credit did the doctor have, for his people became frightened at the crisis of the disease, and called in a native medicine man, who gave some of the virus of a poisonous snake to the man, and not only got the credit of the cure, but the fee as well.

DAMOH.

School Work.—This has been a happy year in the Orphanage schools. Good progress has been made, both in numbers and efficiency. Ninety-six new pupils have been admitted during the year. Of these twenty-three were non-Christians of the town. The English department was enlarged to the requirments of a regular Anglo-Vernacular Middle School. A science master has been employed, and sufficient apparatus for the teaching of science has been purchased. There was a night school opened for the benefit of backward boys. Except the lower classes, all the pupils appeared in the All-India Sunday school examination. One boy received a silver medal. The village Primary Schools were under the direction of Miss Griffith. There was an enrollment in the girls' school of sixty-eight. The girls are soon taken from the schools when they become of a marriageable age, from nine to twelve. The village boys' school had an enrollment of sixty-five. Some boys passing from the primary school entered the Orphanage school. Miss Griffith has visited many of the homes of the children, and thus been able to help the parents as well as the children.

Medical.—The new hospital has meant much to the medical work at this place. The year under review records a much larger number of patients than ever before. Dr. McGavran had charge of the work until the first of April; the remainder of the year it was in the charge of Dr. Fleming. Miss Clark has helped much also during the whole year. Dr. Fleming did quite a bit of itinerating, preaching the gospel, and selling religious tracts. Each morning at the hospital from four to six services were held. There have been many new homes and hearts opened, and we trust the time may be near when minds and lives may be open to the reception of the Great Physician.

Zenana.—This department of the work was carried on by Miss Clark and Bhuri Bai, one of the oldest Mahoba girls. Many homes were regularly visited, the Word proclaimed, a sympathetic attitude won, and a desire to learn to read, sew, work, and keep a clean home intensified.

Evangelistic.—Eleven Christians have come into the fellowship of the Damoh church by letter, making an addition to the church membership during the year of thirty-five. The church here gave about $166 more than last year. Mr. Alexander attributes this large increase to the using of the envelope system. The Orphanage boys alone from their small odds and ends gave about $40. The Christian Endeavor societies did splendid work. Four village Sunday schools were conducted by the Endeavorers. Some taught in the church Sunday school, and others helped in the bazaar preaching. Twenty-four boys made the good confession and were baptized during the year. The surrender of some of the older boys was a source of great joy. There were two evangelists that gave their time to itinerating in the villages in the Damoh district.

Boys' Orphanage.—The average number of boys in the Orphanage during the year was 215. The cost of food and clothing has been about $18 each. Thirty-one of the boys became Christians during the year. There were thirteen deaths from various diseases. There were forty-eight boys admitted from the Christian Women's Board of Missions. The boys begin the day by assembling in the dining-room for song, Bible reading, and prayer. They spend part of the day on the farm, in the shops as carpenters, painters, blacksmiths, etc., and a part in the school. Last year the shop executed 245 orders, from which about $661 was realized. There were sixty-five cattle kept, some good ones added during the year. There were 5,794 pounds of milk sold. From this department about $573 was realized. The general yield of the farm was splendid. The Orphanage was under the careful and able management of C. E. Benlehr.

Though the Japan Christian Mission is small in numbers, we come to the end of another year full of enthusiasm for the work, and thankfulness to the God whom we serve for the wonderful opportunities for service, and the health to continue in it. We have all seen dark days, and know that there are more before us; but behind the cloud the sun is always shining, and knowing that the sun which lights us in this dark land is the Sun of Righteousness, we can not but go forward with confidence in the outcome.

We have been twenty-six in number this year. Mr. and Mrs. Madden will soon return, but Mr. and Mrs. Erskine, Miss Oldham, and Miss Lewis have gone home; so that we have two less for the coming year.

The opportunities for work are so great that we feel that we must have more missionaries soon. We look longingly at a number of cities with no missionaries of any church, in each of which a great work could be done, if we could send a family. What is done in Japan needs to be done quickly.

One of our men writes: "We are convinced that Japan is the most strategic mission field in the world, and that now in Japan is the greatest opportunity ever presented to Christianity. Japan is the most difficult as it is the most advanced and advancing field in the world. The problems that we solve successfully in Japan now will be solved for all non-Christian nations in the future.

"Buddhism in Japan is considered by all students of comparative religion to be the strongest and most formidable religion Christianity has ever encountered. When Christianity conquers Japan the Port Arthur of heathenism will have fallen. We need the biggest Christian men in the world here in Japan—right now. In this land, the last stronghold of Buddhism, there is no place for sectarian strife, consequently the Christian union spirit is strongest in Japan. What Japan needs most right now is the intense evangelistic spirit of our church in America. It is our opportunity, and should be our message to the church in Japan."

Miss Kate V. Johnson says of Japan's progress: "It is hard to realize that we wrote home, 'This is a nation living without pure water, soap, milk, butter, apples, potatoes, chairs, tables, cows, horses, meat, and music.' To-day Japan is gridironed with railroads, telephones are used everywhere in the cities, we have autos, flying machines, and electric cars; and steamers crossing the Pacific keep in constant touch with one of the continents by means of wireless messages. In all these things we see the influence of Christian civilization, and in the lives of the Christians we see the transforming power of Christ. They love Christian hymns, many of them own organs; they pray, they make sacrifices."

One way in which the power of Christ's life, death, and resurrection is manifested here is in the triumphant death of the Christians. There have been two instances of this this year. In one case the heathen parents of the young woman promised her when she left them that they would become Christians. The death of one of the sweetest girls in Miss Kate Johnson's home made a deep impression upon the other girls there, her relatives and schoolmates. When the end came she said, "I know they are coming to take me home to-day." Then she sang "The thought of Christ's love cheers my heart." A religion that can make a dying one rejoice is unknown outside of Christ.

The most encouraging thing of this entire year has been the fight the Christians are making against the Government for granting a renewal of licenses to the masters in the prostitute quarters of Tokyo. The Yoshiwara, as it was called, was completely destroyed by fire on April 9th. Over a hundred lives were lost, and thousands were destitute. Christians visited the mayor while the fire was still burning, and plead with him not to permit those houses to be reopened. A great battle is being waged between the Christians and the powers of darkness. Some have even threatened the lives of the leaders of this righteous movement. Colonel Yamamuro of the Salvation Army, said: "Our business is not to save our lives but men's souls. It is given unto us once to die, and in what better cause could we lay down our lives than in bringing liberty to the women of Japan? Thousands shed their blood to give liberty to the Negroes in the United States, and we should gladly give our blood to free the women of Japan from the worst slavery the world has ever known." Buddhist priests and many non-Christians have united with the Women's Christian Temperance Union and the Young Men's Christian Association, Young Women's Christian Association, and the Salvation Army in this campaign against vice and sin.

The visit of Mr. and Mrs. Rains was all and more than we had hoped that it would be. In our association with them in our homes we learned to love them both, and since their return some of us feel that the distance to Cincinnati is not quite so great as before we had this personal touch. Mr. Rains visited all our stations, and became familiar with the work and problems. He surprised us at times by the keenness with which he grasped some things which we supposed he could not appreciate in such a short time on the field. He attended the Annual Meeting of the Japanese Church, where he became acquainted with our Japanese workers, and heard something of their viewpoint. In a four days' conference with us he discussed with us very thoroughly some of the vital questions of our mission life. The conference was characterized by the utmost frankness and good feeling. Mr. Rains gave some very plain advice in a spirit of loving interest, which made us thankful for it. The various members of the mission body also expressed themselves freely, and as a result we feel that there is a better understanding than ever before between the Japan Mission and the Board in Cincinnati.

Other visitors during the year have been Dr. Shelton, of Tibet; Dr. and Mrs. Wakefield, Mr. and Mrs. Cory, and Mrs. Macklin, of China; Miss Haight, of India; Mr. and Mrs. Hertzog and Mr. Hoskins, of Hiram; Mrs. Mendenhall, of Springfield, Ill.; Miss Goodrell, of Des Moines; Mr. John Stuart Mill, of Australia; Mrs. Palmer, of Ohio; Mr. Buckingham, of Kentucky; Mrs. Foster, of the Philippines; Mr. Smith, of Texas; Mrs. Utt and Miss Way, of Santiago, Cal., and Miss Campbell, of Los Angeles.

We all regret the return to Australia of Mrs. Benson, Mrs. Davey's mother, who had been one of us for three years. Although she spoke no Japanese, and did no so-called "missionary work," her life was eloquent, and her sweet, helpful spirit accomplished more than hours of teaching might have done. We all love her dearly, and she is missed in many places beside the Davey home.

Our Mission consists of five districts, each with one station, where the missionaries live, and several out-stations kept under their constant supervision. The missionaries make as frequent trips as possible, and try by correspondence and prayer to strengthen and help the Japanese workers.

OSAKA.

The Osaka work is in charge of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McCorkle and Miss Stella Walker Lewis. Mr. McCorkle has made such progress with the language that he has preached in Japanese forty times during the year; he has had in charge the moving of the church building, and has acted as adviser to the Japanese workers in the district.

Mrs. McCorkle has had charge of the women's work in Tennoji and Gose, and the Imamiya Sunday school. One of the features of the Tennoji work is a Young Women's Association, which meets weekly in the McCorkle home.

Miss Lewis' work has been with the Oji, Tanabi, Tennoji, and Kisugawa Sunday schools. The last-named is new, and has claimed much attention. It is in a conservative community, and entrance into the homes has been slow, but the children attend regularly, and the homes will doubtless be opened soon. One of the most interesting features of the work has been a class of seven young women taught by the woman evangelist.

Mr. McCorkle writes of the Osaka work: "The past year has been the most difficult year for Christian work that we in Osaka have experienced. The unfriendly attitude of the Educational Department, and the alleged connection of Christianity with the great anarchistic plot have been insidious foes to the work. Students have been openly enjoined to refrain from attendance upon Sunday schools and other Christian meetings. One girl who persisted in such attendance lost her high standing in her class, and was in other ways the object of such persecution that her parents finally removed her from the Government school, and placed her in a Christian school. Because of these and other causes, we have barely been able to hold our own in Osaka this year.

"However, there have been some gains. Two new preaching places, one in the city and one in the country, and three new Sunday schools have been opened during the year. An average of twenty-two meetings a week are now conducted in the station. Twenty-three, three more than during the previous year, have been baptized. Seven of these are from the newly-opened Kisugawa preaching place in Osaka City. The total Sunday school enrollment has increased by a half over last year. One evangelist and one Bible woman have been added to our working force.

"One very encouraging event of the year was a series of revival meetings conducted in the two city churches by Pastor Murayama of the Ushigome church, Tokyo, and Professor Aoki, soloist and song leader of the Kobe public schools. Our churches were full to the doors, and people were greatly moved by the consecrated preaching and singing of these men.

"Union work is flourishing in Osaka. In a union evangelistic effort engaged in by all the churches in the city except the Catholics, our pulpit was filled by Baptist, Presbyterian, and Episcopalian preachers."

TOKYO.

The workers in the Tokyo Station are Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Davey, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hagin, Miss Kate Johnson, Miss Lavinia Oldham, and Miss Mary Rioch.

Mr. Davey writes as follows: "There is a god known as 'The Thousand-Handed One.' The life of a missionary is a day of small duties not to be despised. A thousand-handed worker could not grasp all the opportunities for service that await him at every turn.

"World evangelization requires infinite time, strength, wisdom, skill, and patience. It can be done only by the omnipresent, omniscient, omnipotent Savior, with all the resources of His church under His masterful direction. The human worker is but a drop of the ocean of the love of God. He comes like rain in blessing upon thirsty land, and quickly disappears. In this, my twelfth report, I wish to record my firm conviction that the Disciples of Christ as a people have in Japan duties written large for them by the Master's hand. Our deep and widely proclaimed conviction of a God-given mission, our intense evangelistic spirit, our wealth of men and money, and, above all, our pentecostal power is needed here and now. Millions in Japan are thirsting with a thirst that only the Water of Life can quench. On comparatively few, drops of mercy have fallen. For the multitudes

"'T is for the showers we plead.'

"In Tokyo station, until Mr. Hagin's welcome return a year ago, for over two years we had but one male missionary in evangelistic work in this city of nearly two million people, and in out-stations situated in provinces inhabited by five million people, few of whom have ever heard the gospel, or ever will under present conditions. All hail to the forward movement, and a new station for Japan!

"We have closed another busy year. Ill-health has not allowed me to lead as strenuous a life as desired, yet I counted up the regular meetings for one month recently, and found they numbered forty-three. In all these either Mrs. Davey or I took part. The seed is being sown. To trace results is not our business. We work by faith. Language study, Biblical studies, Bible classes, sermons, callers, mission business, city, country, and school work, union committee work, social duties, and home duties make time fly. There have been discouragements, of course. Few have been baptized. Quite a number of our Christians have emigrated to Korea and elsewhere. We have needed an efficient evangelist, giving full time to the Koishikawa church work. Professor Hirai, with such time as he has been able to give, has done a fine work. There are encouraging features. It is with pleasure that I think of six of our young evangelists who study the Bible with me in Drake College. With interest we look forward to the developing of the Sunday school work in Japan, in which we hope to have a part. It has been an inestimable privilege to act on union committees with such men as the venerable Dr. D. C. Green and others whose names will live forever in the missionary annals of Japan. It has been a divine joy to associate with missionaries of various denominations, men and women of culture, refinement, Christlike spirit and Christlike purpose, who desire the unity of Christ's people, pray for unity, study how to bring it about, and practice unity as federated bodies, as far as is possible under our peculiar circumstances without sacrifice of principles.

"I hope that the Disciples of Christ, through their representatives on the foreign field, in true humility, in sincerity of purpose, in holy zeal, in purity of doctrine, in practical service, shall be first and foremost to join hands with all others who love the Lord, wherever and whenever possible to answer His prayer 'that they may be one.'"

Mrs. Davey's work lies partly in the exercise of her musical talent. She has had a weekly singing class, attended by young men from a Young Men's Christian Association dormitory near her home. Greater interest has been created in the church music by her regular practice and special practice for special meetings, in which are the young women and older Sunday school scholars. There is a great need of Christmas, Easter, and Children's Day song service in Japanese.

A cooking class and women's meeting have been held every week, and several who came to learn cookery have heard the Bible taching for the first time.

The poorer women of the district have attended the weekly meeting conducted by Miss Sato, a graduate of the Girls' School. The Sunday school also at this place is flourishing, an average of about forty children crowding into the little Japanese room which Mr. A. McLean gave to this work when it was in the care of Mrs. Guy.

Mr. and Mrs. Hagin are in charge of the work in Murakawacho in Hongo Ward, and the out-stations Kofu, Toride, and Chiba. The Murakawacho work has suffered much from change of missionaries in charge, troublesome pastors and troublesome members, and seemed in a bad state when Mr. and Mrs. Hagin returned a year ago. But during the year it has taken on new life. Professor Otsuka, of Drake College, is acting as pastor and doing good work; but of course has little time to devote to pastoral work. Miss Nakamura, a graduate of the Girls' School, has proved an excellent helper. The membership is about sixty, and there have been fourteen baptisms during the year.

The work in the out-stations is moving forward surely. Chiba has been witnessing great crowds listening to the gospel story. There have been six baptisms, and now more than a hundred people are being instructed from the Bible each week. Work has been opened at Yawata, a city of eight thousand a short distance from Chiba. Mr. W. E. Jett, of Wichita, Kan., has given as a memorial for his wife the sum of $2,500 for the erection of a memorial missionary home. This will be occupied by the Hagin family.

Since the return of Mr. and Mrs. Hagin, who took up the work in Murakawacho, Miss Johnson has been in charge of Sendage and Shizuoka. Mr. Yoshida, the pastor at Sendage, is a noteworthy example of self-sacrifice, courage, and steadfastness. Having sufficient of this world's goods for his temporal needs he serves without pay from the Mission, seeking not his own profit but the profit of many. He has preached twice every Lord's day, held two series of meetings, and encouraged the Christians, both by his example and teaching of the Scriptures, to endeavor to build their own chapel; and each week they lay by some money for the building fund. Seven baptisms have resulted from the work at Sendage, one of those baptized joining the Murakawacho church. Pastor Nishioka Shizuoka has preached regularly on Lord's days and has held four Young Men's Christian Association meetings and four meetings for non-Christians.

Miss Johnson has had eleven girls in her home—one has entered a nurses' training school, two have died, and the others continue with her. Two graduated from the high school department of the Girls' School in March, and have entered the Bible department to prepare for evangelistic work. These girls have conducted the Sunday school with eighty enrolled pupils, and helped in cooking classes. All the women of the church help in work for women, and Miss Johnson has no Bible woman paid from Mission funds. This is an encouraging start toward self-support.

Miss Rioch has charge of a primary school and two kindergartens, and she and Miss Oldham have had nine girls in their home. The oldest of these graduated this year from the High School department of Long College, and is now able to help with the evangelistic work. The girls have all been well, and all passed their yearly examinations with credit.

Since the last report the primary school has gone on as usual. The new year opened on April 4th with an attendance of 230. Miss Rioch has had no Bible woman this year, but the primary teachers have helped with the weekly mothers' meeting and the calling; for they are welcomed in all the homes. Calls have been made in all the homes, more than 200, and more than once where there was special need. The International Sunday School Lessons have been taught each week to the teachers, who in turn teach the children in Sunday school and review the lesson every day of the week. During the year seven asked for baptism, but only five obtained the permission of their parents. The kindergarten of this school has increased in average attendance, having as many now as the Government will allow in the limited space.

The kindergarten at Shimotodzuka machi has trebled in attendance. Miss Rioch and the teacher have done much calling, and the Sunday school and monthly mothers' meeting have been encouraging, though small.

TAKINOGAWA.

Mr. R. D. McCoy, Mr. A. W. Place and Mr. P. A. Davey are the missionaries at work in Drake College. Mr. McCoy's work has been mostly in the class-room, but greater ease and freedom in speaking Japanese have made it possible for him to speak many times in Tokyo, and to spend three weeks in an evangelistic trip in the Akita and Sendai districts.

Three young men were graduated last year from the Bible College. This was the fourth class to graduate from the school and the first to take the four-year course. Last fall three new students entered the preparatory class. The students have done practical work in the different Sunday schools, and have held weekly meetings in Oji, a village near the school. Several of the older ones have also taken evangelistic trips.

In March the second class graduated from the Middle School. There were twenty-four graduates, six of whom were Christians, among them the men who stood highest in the class. The entering class numbered twenty-two, and several have entered other classes. Among the new students an increasing number are from Christian homes.

The English night school has had only two classes most of the year. The first-year class has been especially full.

Mrs. McCoy has had charge of the Mothers' Club, with a membership of thirty-five from the best homes in the vicinity of Takinogawa; a Girls' Club, with a membership of one hundred, where the girls are taught sewing, Bible stories, and Christian songs, and has worked in the Takinogawa Sunday school, besides helping the young men of the school with vocal and instrumental music.

Mr. Place's principal work has been in the Bible School. Mrs. Place has assisted in the evangelistic work of the station and with the music of Long College. Through her efforts the Place home has become a center of strong influence among the Japanese who are welcomed there.

Mr. Place writes: "The past year has been the most successful one of our lives. Christ has been more to us, and we feel that we have accomplished more for Christianity than in any previous year. We have made a special study of missions in general and Christian work in Japan in particular. In this study we have discerned the hand of God more clearly than ever before, and we feel doubly assured that God has called us to the great work of missions in Japan.

"In my lectures to my classes in Pastoral Theology this year I am most happy to have seen immediate results in the creating of an evangelistic spirit in the classes. Mr. P. K. Goto, as fine a Christian gentleman as I have ever known, who is my interpreter, was so impressed with my lectures on special evangelism that he decided to hold a special evangelistic meeting in the church where he is preaching every Sunday. The result was that he had sixty-two confessions in a two weeks' meeting. I think that I am safe in saying that this is the first meeting of exactly this kind ever held in Japan. There have been special meetings, but no meeting where the invitation is given as we give it at home. This successful meeting has already been a great stimulus to many of our preachers."

Miss Clawson, Miss Lediard, and Miss Parker are the workers in the Girls' School. Until Miss Clawson's return, in October, Miss Lediard carried on the school, assisted by Miss Parker and the faithful Japanese teachers, Professors Hirai and Yoshimura, Miss Nakamura, and the Misses Kawamura. After Miss Clawson's return Miss Lediard gave most of her time to English teaching, having four classes a day, and continued her Japanese study. In December she began teaching in Japanese, taking charge of a class in the Takinogawa Sunday school. She has also the encouragement of being able to take part in Christian Endeavor and women's meetings.

Miss Parker has spent two hours a week with a sewing class, but has made language her regular work, attending the language school for foreigners.

We can best present the work, needs, and aims of the school by quoting from Miss Clawson: "As I did not return to Japan until October, 1910, it will be impossible to give any extended report. During my absence Miss Mary F. Lediard had full charge of the work of the Margaret K. Long College. I found the school in splendid condition on my return, and I received a hearty welcome from all.

"The Bible Women's Training School Department is now in the sixth year of its existence. We have graduated from this department eleven girls, all of whom continue in the work with the exception of one who was called to the higher srvice two years ago. We have a good class in training now, and are encouraged over the future prospects of this work.

"Our High School Department started three years ago with the first, second, and third-year classes. This year we graduated our first class from this department. The growth has been in no way remarkable, but it has been a steady, healthy growth. When we receive the Government privileges for which we expect soon to begin negotiations, we hope to grow more rapidly still, retaining our privilege to teach the Bible and carry on evangelistic work in the school.

"Miss Edith Parker, who came to the school work in 1909, expects next year to begin the development of the Industrial Department, and Mrs. A. W. Place hopes to begin a Kindergarten and Training School Department next year. These two departments will meet long-felt needs in our work, and will bring to us many new girls, and open to us scores of homes for evangelistic work. We need a music teacher who can give all her time to the work of instrumental and vocal music in the school. This could in a short time develop into a good, strong department, we believe. The Society has promised us this help just as soon as the right person can be found and the means secured to send her to the field.

"Since my return I have been kept busy with teaching, language study, looking after the countless details of the school, and, together with Mrs. Place, trying to oversee the evangelistic work of Takinogawa Station. Lack of physical strength and time have hindered the work. Our evangelistic work, however, is not inconsiderable. The teachers and the girls of the school help in or have complete control of six Sunday schools, and thus come in contact with several hundred children. Three of the schools are supported almost entirely by the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the school, which is an active society doing good work. We have also a Woman's Christian Temperance Union, which is as yet not very well developed, but which we hope to see grow into something worth while. These two societies are among the non-Christian girls in the High School. We have a women's meeting that meets every Wednesday night. This is for the wives and daughters of the farmers and shopkeepers and other working women in our immediate community who have so little to make their lives happy. We have once a month a meeting for the lady teachers and the wives of our men teachers. This is well attended, and promises to do great good.

"During the year several of the High School girls have been baptized, and others are earnest enquirers. Pray especially for this part of our work.

"Recently Mr. R. A. Long, of Kansas City, who made the first large gift for the Girls' School in Japan, sent us a handsome bronze tablet bearing the inscription,

Long College
In memory of his mother,
Margaret K. Long, of Shelby County, Kentucky,
By her son, R. A. Long

This tablet was erected with suitable ceremonies at the entrance of our chapel. We are thankful to have such men interested in the welfare and development of this work. The prospects for the future of the school are good. We need already a new building to meet the demands of the new departments we hope to add next year. We feel sure this need will be supplied, for doth not our God supply all our needs?"

SENDAI.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson and Miss Rose Johnson now constitute the missionary force in Sendai.

Mr. Robinson's work during the last year has been largely language study, aside from correspondence and consultation with the Japanese workers of the district. He has conducted an English Bible class and has preached in Japanese thirty-one times. He has served on the committees and Sendai Poor Relief Fund.

Mrs. Robinson's work, aside from language study and home duties, has been with the music, playing for the church service and giving lessons in singing and hymn playing. Little Wilbur, though he requires much time, has proved a help rather than a hindrance to the work, as he attracts many to the classes held in the home.

Miss Johnson has supervised the Sendai women's work and Sunday schools for most of the year. Two afternoons were given to the High School girls, two were given to the Christian women, and one to inquirers. She with her Bible woman made a trip through the district, holding women's meetings and Sunday school rallies.

In February it became clear to the Sendai workers that their efficiency would be increased by a division of forces. So, in April, Miss Johnson moved to Fukushima to devote herself to the Sunday school and women's work in the surrounding villages, taking with her two young and enthusiastic graduates of Long College. The wisdom of the move has been proved already by the doubling of the attendance at church and three Sunday schools.

The number of baptisms in the Sendai district shows a gain of thirty-three and a third per cent over the preceding year, though the resident membership has not increased because of a number of deaths and removals to places outside the district. There are twelve Sunday schools, as against fourteen of the preceding year, two having been stopped on account of the overlapping of work in Sendai. There has been unusual interest, especially in special evangelistic meetings. Professor Hirai and Professor Ishikawa of our Bible School spent four days in and about Fukushima. The Sendai pastor has made three evangelistic trips, and the Fukushima pastor has held special services in a number of places. Four brother missionaries—Mr. Davey, Mr. McCoy, Mr. McCorkle, and Mr. Erskine—have also at separate times made preaching tours of the district.

AKITA.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Erskine, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McCall, Miss Jessie Asbury, and Miss Rose Armbruster are the missionaries.

Mr. Erskine has had general charge of the district with its widely separated out-stations. He has made six tours through the entire district, has preached more than a hundred times, and given lectures in several schools. His classes in two Middle Schools, though held only once a month, have proved all he had hoped, an entering wedge into the lives of the boys he hopes to lead to Christ.

Mr. and Mrs. McCall have spent the last year in Tokyo in language study, and have found it a valuable year, because of the excellent advantages for study, and also because of the wider view they have received of mission work in Japan. Their hearts are in Akita, and they are eager to take up the work for which they feel much better fitted because of this year of opportunity.

Miss Asbury has been in charge of four Sunday schools, the thriving kindergarten, and the mothers' meeting, and has made one tour through the district with the woman evangelist.

Miss Armbruster's work has been principally with the women and children in Nariyama. The Sunday school has had an average attendance of fifty-eight, sometimes reaching a hundred or more. A women's meeting has been held twice a month in Miss Armbruster's home, several women have attended regularly, and one has asked for baptism. There has also been a weekly Bible class for young girls, and also one for young men. Miss Armbruster, with the woman evangelist, made a long evangelistic trip through the district, during which they visited two towns which till then had never been entered by a foreign woman missionary. Later they went to Kokunodate once and several times to Tsuchizaki to hold women's meetings.

The Akita church has become self-governing, and has moved nearer to self-support than ever before. The pastor called by the church, though not a strong man, is good, and we feel that if the church members will feel their responsibility as Christians much can be accomplished. The struggle may be a hard one, but if the church will now rise to the occasion it will in future years become a power for Christ in Akita that it could not be while weakly dependent on the Mission.

Pastor Shirai, the pastor in charge of work at Sakata and Tsuraoka, has proved to be a strong and enthusiastic worker. Through his efforts the church at Tsuraoka has overcome the bad reputation it formerly had, and has become a light in the town. The church is well attended by the boys of the Middle School, and three boys who are leaders in the fifth-year class have been baptized.

There have been three special opportunities for work in Akita city during the year. The first was during the flood in September, when the life-saving boats brought many to Miss Asbury's home for shelter, and many hours were spent teaching the refugees. A regular meeting of the women of the neighborhood has resulted from the teaching and witnessing during those days.

Later in September the annual city festival, which brought thousands of people in from the country, gave opportunity for all-day preaching and song service at the church. Hundreds heard the gospel from the missionaries and young Christians, and bought tracts and Testaments.

During the cherry-blossom season, which lasted eight days, a booth was erected in a quiet corner of the park; the people were attracted by songs and gramophone music, and preaching was done by the pastor and Christians a half dozen or more times each day. Hundreds heard the gospel—many for the first time; others came again and again to hear the wonderful story. Several hundred Scripture portions, books, and tracts were sold, and 2,000 tracts were given away.

In the words of Miss Asbury: "Perhaps the most important event in the Akita work has been the opening of the beautiful new kindergarten. We wish to thank all who helped to make it possible, and wish that you could attend one of the daily prayer meetings held by the teachers after the children have left. You would often hear such prayers as this, 'O God, we thank Thee for this building; may we as teachers strive harder to build strong, beautiful characters in these children Thou hast lent us for awhile.' I want to repeat my appeal for a trained kindergartner to train young girls for this work. Who will hear the call of the dear little children of Japan, and offer to either go or send?"

CHAOHSIEN.

This has been the most encouraging year at Chaohsien. One woman and six men have been added by confession and baptism. The church membership is now fifteen, and their contributions $34.58 (Mexican) for self-support, $8 to the native Convention, and $20 sent to the Foreign Christian Missionary Society through Secretary Rains and wife on their recent visit. Besides this, they have on hand a fund of $60 with which to purchase an organ for the church.

One young man, who is a cloth merchant on the street, has since his baptism steadfastly refused to sell on the Lord's Day. During a Sunday service his father, who had been trying to compel him to sell, entered the church, seized him, and dragged him out, beating him in the face and head. The Christians prayed that the time might come when the father would enter that same chapel and beg for forgiveness. Before the next Lord's Day the father had sent a letter of apology, confessing that he had done wrong. The son still refuses to sell on Sunday, and regularly attends all church services.

Mr. Ih Gung San, a teacher of one of the two day schools, who is a third degree graduate of one of the old Government examinations, became converted to Christianity through translating Genesis and Exodus, and through studying the New Testament in the Bible Study class. Through his influence and example the teacher in the other day school was led to accept Christ.

Mr. Titus has made the usual itinerations for gospel preaching, and many portions of Scriptures, tracts, and calendars have been sold.

Mrs. Titus has a fund in hand to build a woman's chapel, when it is definitely known where the building is to be located. She has a woman in training in Miss Kelly's school in Nanking, and two girls in Miss Lyon's school, who, it is hoped, will be ready to take up the woman's work in Chaohsien in the not far distant future.

Doctor and Mrs. Wakefield returned to China last fall, and as no house could be had in Chaohsien, they have been in Wuhu studying the language. They will go to Chaohsien this fall to engage in the work there.

CHUCHOW.

Evangelistic.—Owing to the absence on furlough of Mr. and Mrs. Dannenberg, and the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Hunt were not returned to the station until the close of the fiscal year, the burden of the evangelistic work has fallen upon the senior evangelist, Mr. Shih Kwei Biao. He has visited and strengthened every part of the district, besides aiding in revival meetings at other stations. His help has been invaluable.

Three things have been emphasized: Chinese leadership, co-operation among the Christians, and modern Bible-study methods of teaching. With the exception of the time for communion service, the entire Lord's Day morning has been given up to the work of the Bible School. The evangelists at the out-stations have likewise made the Bible lesson the center of the Sunday service. Self-support has been on the increase; subscriptions at the annual Convention nearly doubled those of any single previous year. The Christians at Chuan-tsiao bought a piece of land for about $90 (Mexican), and are turning the deed over to the Mission. Several of the other outstations have either built or rented chapels for holding services. The church in Chuchow gave $40 to open an independent street chapel near the railroad station. The responsibility for examining and recommending inquirers for baptism has been placed in the hands of the Chinese evangelists. At the Christmas Convention forty-eight were baptized, representing nearly every preaching point in the district. Altogether ninety have been baptized during the year. The church roll, which has been revised, now shows 315 members of the church in the district.

One very inspiring movement has begun: that of uniting the whole Chuchow district, of which the China Inland Mission at Laian is a part. There has always been perfect accord between the two Missions, and we look forward to seeing the churches united into one body for the evangelization of the district.

Mrs. Osgood has had charge of the woman's work, and taught the woman's Bible class. Mrs. Shih has rendered efficient service in the development of the Girls' School, and in work among women throughout the district.

Educational.—Last year free tuition was offered girls who would enter the new school, and there was an average attendance of thirty-five. This year tuition was asked, and forty-six have been enrolled; these represent Christian families, and many of the better class non-Christians in town. Miss Muriel Molland is expected to take up this work in the fall.

An old grain storehouse was mortgaged and renovated for a boys' school. There has been little money for equipping the school, but the number of pupils has steadily increased, until at present sixty are in attendance. The city schools took a retrograde step at the beginning of the year, and this has sent a higher class of pupils to the Mission school.

Both schools have been a stimulus to the church work. They have their own Christian Endeavor Society, but attend the church services in a body.

Medical.—There has been a marked increase in the number of patients, even over last year, which trebled any previous year. This was partly due to the new railroad for a time using the hospital for its patients; by reason of this the receipts were also greater. The railroad has now entirely withdrawn to its own hospital. The records show 513 in-patients, of whom 61 were women. The railroad sent 119. Eighty-five operations were performed. Twenty persons died in the hospital, the majority of these being refugee patients who were too weakened by famine to be saved. At the dispensary 5,251 new cases were treated, and 5,232 return visits. The grand total of patients was 11,195.

The former quarters have been altogether inadequate for the work, and it was a great joy to learn that Mr. and Mrs. James M. Tisdale, of Covington, Ky., had given $5,000 gold for a hospital building, which will be a memorial to Mr. Tisdale's two sisters. The building has been begun, and will be finished for the fall work. The visit of Mr. and Mrs. Hertzog to China at this time is very opportune, for they are rendering invaluable assistance in the planning of the complete hospital plant. When complete, the building will accommodate about fifty in-patients and the hospital force.

The assistants have carried on the evangelistic work. Two classes of the Bible School have been conducted regularly among the hospital patients; also evening services and a class for those desiring to learn to read the Bible.

LUCHOWFU.

Medical.—The medical work has increased so that additions to the present building were made necessary. Consequently, much of Dr. Butchart's time has been taken up in superintending this work. Over $5,000 (Mexican) have been expended in this way; nearly $4,000 of this was collected on the field, leaving the hospital in debt for the remaining $1,000. Through the kindness of Dr. Butchart's friends and relatives at home, a fund was provided for the erection of a building for charity patients; but owing to an emergency, this building has had to be used for storage, and temporary quarters were erected on adjacent ground for the charity cases. One of the great needs of the hospital is for an isolation ward for tuberculosis patients; this could be built for about $250 gold.

Mr. Baird needed more space and equipment for his evangelistic work in the hospital, and an appeal was made to the Chinese for the money necessary to remodel the chapel, waiting-rooms, and dispensary. About $2,700 (Mexican) has been promised for this work, of which about $1,200 has already been paid. Another way in which the medical work could be made to co-operate with the direct evangelistic work would be by the use of a small kerosene launch, which could run between out-stations on the canal and lake; in this way the hospital students could do medical work throughout the district.

One feature of the work this year has been famine cases from the district to the north; thousands have died in and near Luchowfu from starvation, typhus, or relapsing fever. The City Council collected money to help meet the need, but encountered great difficulties in the distribution. This money they are now turning over to the hospital, as they said it would be used to better advantage there. This shows that the hospital is gaining the confidence of the people, as a few years ago such a thing as this would have been unheard of.

During the year there were 14,225 new cases; return treatments, 9,815; eye-testing, 300; out-calls, first visits, 155; return visits, 360; opium cases, 88; office visits, 77; obstetric cases, out-calls, 3; breaking opium habit, 95; in-patients, 651; total, 25,769. The receipts in fees for the year were $3,007.90.

The evangelistic work in the hospital, which is in charge of Mr. Baird, has been very satisfactory. The nightly meetings were well-attended, both by the in-patients and by some from the outside. There has been daily preaching at the morning clinic. There have been nine baptisms during the year. A reading-room and library has been started, and is being used by large numbers of the patients and men from the outside.

The woman's work in the hospital has been in charge of Mrs. Butchart. For the first time she has had a good Bible woman to assist her—Mrs. Peng, who has received two years' training in Miss Kelly's Bible School in Nanking. There has been daily preaching at the clinics, and every afternoon a class for the study of the Chinese character and Christian truth. As a result of this work, four women have been baptized. In addition to the hospital work, Mrs. Peng assists in the Sunday afternoon evangelistic meetings for women at the church.

Woman's Work.—Miss Favors has had charge of the evangelistic work for women. There have been held during the year regular Sunday afternoon services, with an average attendance of about 140. A Wednesday afternoon prayer-meeting for Christians and inquirers is held, also a weekly inquirers' class with a membership of twenty-four. A class of twelve women meets every afternoon for the study of the Chinese character; this class is taught by Miss Favors' personal teacher.

In the winter a series of special evangelistic meetings, lasting about twenty days, was held. The meetings were somewhat hindered by bad weather, but on clear days the women came in great numbers—as many as five and six hundred at a meeting. At the close of the meeting there were eight confessions, and the work as a whole has been greatly blessed as a result of the meetings. On Christmas day there were ten women baptized.

Besides the public services, meetings were held in a number of homes in the city, in the immediate vicinity, and one of the out-stations. In addition to these, Miss Favors has made twenty-seven calls a month in the homes of the women, and has entertained numbers of guests in her home. The work has increased so that it is impossible for Miss Favors to keep pace with its demands, and she has had to refuse many calls.

Educational.—Boys' School.—The enrollment at the East Gate Boys' School has remained practically the same as last year—about thirty-two, which is all that can be effectively handled without an increase of the teaching force. There has been a distinct gain both in the grade of students enrolled and of the work done; in promptness, regularity, enthusiasm for work, and wholesome school spirit of the students have been especially gratifying. One of the main factors in bringing about this result has been the commodious room and the playgrounds, where drill can be given and games indulged in.

It will be necessary in another year to provide high school work for the advanced boys, or else lose them to the school.

Mr. Brown has had charge of this work.

Girls' School.—The enrollment for the year has been about forty, with tuitions amounting to $162.42. One of the girls was baptized at Christmas time, and during the special meetings held by Mr. Han at Easter time, four more expressed the desire to be Christians.

Evangelistic.—The general evangelistic work in the city has been in charge of Mr. Brown. The work has gone much as usual; there have been twenty-one baptisms during the year, the largest number for any one year thus far in the history of the station. The Sunday services are still having to be held in the hospital clinic waiting-room, and the crowded condition resulting has been a great drawback to the work. The Sunday school is in a flourishing condition; there has been an average attendance of about 150. Mr. Hsia, the evangelist, has had a class of about thirty boys from the Government schools in the city; the steady growth of this class has been one of the encouraging features of the Sunday school.

Mr. Buck has had charge of the Christian Endeavor Societies, whose weekly meetings have been held at his home. He has also held three early morning meetings a week with inquirers and others, these also at his home. Mr. Buck spent two months of the spring in the northern part of the province in famine relief work.

The work has been continued at the East Gate chapel. During the Chinese New Year holidays special meetings were held by Mr. Garrett and Mr. Han; these meetings started off encouragingly, but were interefered with by bad weather; two months later Evangelist Han returned and held an eight-days' meeting, at which there were large crowds. While the number of inquirers enrolled was not large, partly as a result of these meetings, a Bible Class of several teachers was organized; these men are not inquirers as the term is usually understood, but they are open-minded, earnest men who stand well in the city, and the class has had great possibilities.

Interest in the reading-room has increased, although the work has suffered for lack of a competent man to take charge. If such a man could be secured, the reading-room could be made a telling branch of the work.

OUT-STATIONS.

Sanho.—Mr. Brown has had charge of the work at Sanho, and has made monthly trips there. The work is still retarded by the lack of adequate quarters, and the situation is made more difficult by the high prices demanded for property and by the shortness of funds. Progress has been made in breaking down the former bitter prejudice and in winning the confidence of the people. The Boys' School had an enrollment of thirty-two— about the same as last year.

Liangyuen.—The work there, which has been in charge of Mr. Baird, has been supported by the Luchowfu church. A good piece of land has been purchased, and a chapel will be built at once. There is a small school of twelve boys there, and this number could be greatly increased if the accommodations would permit.

NANKING.

Evangelistic.—The work at the Drum Tower church, in charge of Mr. Garrett, has grown perceptibly during the year. There are eight men's Bible study classes, meeting during the week in homes and elsewhere. There are two Sunday schools, a Christian Endeavor Society, a Young Men's Christian Association, a Young Women's Christian Association, and a Volunteer Band of twenty. The church joined as usual in the large union tent meetings at the Chinese New Year time; it has also had its part in the Provincial and National Federation and Evangelistic organization and work. There have been seven baptisms during the year.

As Hsia Gwan, since the removal to a new and better chapel, one which is nearer the people, the work has taken on new life. Two have been baptized, and ten more are to be baptized shortly.

The church at South Gate has been under the supervision of Mr. Cory. In addition to the regular Sunday and week-day services for Christians and inquirers, evening meetings were held for outsiders; these were well attended. There have been about twenty-five baptisms during the year, five of whom were women.

The woman's work, in charge of Miss Kelly and Miss Raw, has been very gratifying. There have been large audiences at the Sunday afternoon meetings for outsiders, and the Thursday afternoon services have been a means of growth to the Christian women, who now number thirty. There is also a class of twenty inquirers.

Out-stations.—Mr. Garrett has visited the out-stations at Pukeo, Gotansih, Dayang, Liehgwan, and Tantswein several times during the year. In all but one of these places special revival services have been held. Six have been baptized during the year. The Chinese preachers from these towns have been in the Bible College more than half the year, hence the work has not been pushed as it otherwise would have been. Three of these men have now graduated and returned to their respective fields.

The Pukeo school has grown in efficiency and numbers. There are forty-three boys in attendance. They have organized a Young Men's Christian Association, and help greatly in the church services. The school would grow much larger if there were room. They propose this year to open independently their own primary school at the other end of the street. The head teacher, Dr. D. Gung, has been appointed superintendent of the mission day schools.

One Christian family in Pukeo has donated to the church land for buildings and a garden for an orphanage and school one mile out in the country. The Chinese Annual Convention proposes to establish and maintain the orphanage.

The woman's work in the country stations is in charge of Miss Kelly and Miss Raw. Several visits have been made to them during the year. At all meetings there were large crowds, but it is impossible to follow up these results until the work is more adequately manned.

Educational.—Girls' Boarding School.—This has been the best year in the history of the school. The attendance has been ninety; in addition to this, four of the advanced pupils from the Presbyterian Girls' School have been taking the normal course at the school; this plan has worked well, and it has been an inspiration to the pupils of both schools to do better work. This year there was one graduate from the normal course, two from the high school, and a number received certificates from the intermediate department. This year's graduate from the normal course was a member of the first graduating class of the high school, and has taught for six years in the school.

There has been a marked spiritual growth among the girls during the year. The group method of Bible study has been followed; the classes meet every morning at 6.30. Miss Lyon has charge of one of these herself, and has the teachers of the other classes in a normal class once a week. Several series of meetings have been held that have been of great help to the girls; a number of them have volunteered to do Christian work. There has been one baptism.

A number of the older girls go out with the Bible women to preach in the homes, and help in meetings Sunday afternoon.

The two Christian Endeavor Societies have improved very much, as has also the Sunday school, which has about one hundred members.

Mrs. Settlemyer has had charge of the music in the school, and during the fall term taught two English classes. Mrs. Garrett also has been of great assistance during the year. The last two months of the term Miss Molland taught two English classes.

Miss Lyon has also had the help of competent Chinese teachers, but the sole responsibility of this large school has rested on her, a responsibility which is too great for any one person to carry.

South Gate: Girls' Schools.—The two day schools, under the supervision of Miss Kelly and Miss Raw, have done satisfactory work. The enrollment for the year was forty-eight. The girls have had an excellent Christian Endeavor Society, and the older girls, with the help of one of Miss Lyon's teachers, have kept up the Sunday children's meetings since the New Year.

Boys' School.—The day and the night schools, in charge of Mr. Cory, have had an enrollment of about one hundred. Weekly Bible study classes have been carried on, with more than a hundred in attendance.

Bible College.—The Bible College has been in charge of Mr. Cory. Mr.

Garrett taught in the college regularly throughout the year, and Mr. Settlemyer during the first term. Mrs. Settlemyer gave daily instruction in music.

There were twenty-six students enrolled, nine of whom graduated this year. In addition to carrying on their studies in the college, the students have preached regularly at various points, and have held special Bible institutes in some of the mission stations.

This year there will be established in Nanking a Bible Training School founded along the lines of the Bible Teachers' Training School in New York City. With this school our Bible College will be closely affiliated, but will continue a separate existence.

Woman's Bible School.—The Woman's School did its full quota of work the first half of the year, Miss Kelly giving the final examinations from her room, as she was unable, on account of her illness, to get to the school. Since Miss Kelly's departure for home, no boarding pupils have been received.

University of Nanking.—The growth of the University of Nanking, since the consummation of the union of the Methodist, Presbyterian, and Disciples' schools, has shown the wisdom of the step. Several new buildings, with good equipment, have been put up during the year, and a number of competent instructors have been added to the teaching force.

Mr. Settlemyer's work is entirely in connection with the University. He has had charge of the Middle School, and the departments of history, economics, and political science in the high school and college.

Medical.—Dr. Macklin was absent from the field for eight months of the year; during that time the work of the hospital was ably carried on by Mrs. Molland, with the aid of the students and the staff of Chinese assistants. The charity work has been separated from the paying department, and it is hoped that the latter will bring in increased returns, also that higher fees may be given for operations. The second cottage hospital is being built; both of these hospitals were the gift of Mr. Ging, a rich merchant in Hankou. On account of the famine in the north, the number of charity patients was greatly increased, and it has been very difficult to get the funds to care for these cases. On the other hand, it has seemed impossible to turn them away.

Dr. Macklin continues his work at the South Gate three days in the week.

Active evangelistic work is carried on in the hospital by the medical students and students from the Bible College. Dr. Macklin continues his regular preaching at various points in the country.

NANTUNGCHOW.

Evangelistic.—The work of the past year has been intensive rather than extensive. A number have expressed a desire to be Christians, but there was only one of these whom it was thought best to baptize. In several ways the work has suffered more than in previous years: several of our Chinese helpers have been absent, and slanderous reports regarding our work have been published in the native press. Notwithstanding these hindrances, the members as a whole have been faithful.

Each week eleven meetings were regularly held. At a series of meetings held by Mr. Ware and Chinese evangelists, the two chapels were crowded, and great interest was aroused. The audiences included many of the shopkeepers and some of the scholars. Fifteen persons expressed a desire to become Christians, but of these only a few proved sincere. Early in the year the local church assumed the financial responsibility for evangelistic work in the neighboring town of Hsing-di, where two of the members reside. A chapel has been rented, and the church sends two of its members to preach there each week.

The demands of the evangelistic and educational work in the city have precluded the possibility of doing much itineration: unless there can be another missionary to help, either in the educational or evangelistic work, itineration must perforce be largely neglected.

The reading-room has been well attended; this is a valuable auxiliary, and should be strengthened by placing an earnest, scholarly Christian in charge, and by providing a good library and more newspapers and periodicals.

The two colporteurs report large sales of Scriptures, these sales having totalled 151 Testaments and 16,556 portions for the year.

Educational.—The attendance at the Boys' School has been good, the enrollment being twenty-five—five more than last year. There has been improvement in discipline and efficiency. It is hoped that in another year several students will be ready to enter the Nanking University High School. That the Bible teaching is beginning to bear fruit is evidenced by the fact that four of the pupils confessed Christ at the special meetings. The present building is cramped and unsanitary, and a better building is very much needed. One of the other great needs is for a girls' school; the Government has opened two schools for girls, but in these there is, of course, no Christian instruction.

Medical.—Dr. and Mrs. Poland have continued their language study. Dr. Poland has been able to do some medical work, having treated about two hundred patients, and collected $250 in fees. Great numbers of people had to be turned away, because Dr. Poland could not spare the time from his language study.

Land has been purchased for a hospital; this land has been cleared of several old Chinese buildings, and the contract let for the erection of the hospital. There should be a great future for medical work in this important city.

SHANGHAI.

Evangelistic.—We have two main centers for evangelistic work, and at both of these the work during the year has prospered.

The church at Yangtsepoo, which has been in charge of Mr. Ware for many years, continues to grow. The evangelistic work is extending in many directions. One of the members, having moved to the South Side, where no church work was being done, gave part of his house for a preaching hall; he himself conducts the regular preaching service, Mr. Ware going down one Sunday in each month, and Miss Tonkin holding a meeting for women one week day.

The work at the outstation on the island of Tsung Ming is progressing steadily Mr. Tsiang Dingban, from Nanking, conducted a successful series of meetings there; the evening services were well attended by business men, who were greatly interested. The senior evangelist, Mr. Hu, has done excellent work. Mr. Ware visits the island once a month. During the year he gave three lantern lectures, two of them in a Government school, which was granted for the occasion.

Mr. Ware also conducts a preachers' training class, and the good results are appearing in the improved class of work done by the preachers.

In addition to his regular work, Mr. Ware has held monthly services at the Door of Hope, where he has a congregation of over a hundred girls, of whom he has baptized thirteen during the year. He has also served as Chairman of the Union Hymn Book Committee, and as a member of the Board of the Chinese Religious Tract Society and the examiner of its Chinese manuscripts.

Mr. Shaw returned from furlough in April of last year, and immediately resumed charge of the Miller Road work, consisting of the church and school. The church services are well attended, the chapel being taxed to its utmost. On Christmas day there were ten baptisms at the church, making twelve for the year. At this service there was used for the first time the beautiful individual communion set which was the gift of R. F. Thrapp's church at Jacksonville, Ill.

During the year the Sunday school has been well attended, with an average of 150. The superintendent, a merchant, is thinking seriously of giving up his business to enter the ministry. The Christian Endeavor Society, which was organized last summer, has a membership of about forty; these young people have an evangelistic service on Saturday evening, and on Sunday afternoon the regular prayer-meeting service.

Evangelistic.—During the last year the Independent church has shown much activity. They have continued the support of their pastor, Mr. Li. They have operated a day school of some thirty pupils. They have given every indication of unity and harmony amongst themselves, together with a sincere desire worthily to represent the cause they advocate.

This church is the result of a missionary work started by one family amongst their friends by having night services after the day's work was finished. In this way a small nucleus was gathered together; the zeal of these Christians, together with the idea of "China for the Chinese," which is rapidly taking hold of all classes of Chinese, resulted in the withdrawing of some forty of the members of the Miller Road church and a few from Yangtsepoo, who united with them in the organizing of the independent church.

There were some twenty additions to the church during the year.

There is close affiliation between the work of the missionaries and the Chinese church; Mr. Ware speaks for them on Thursday evening.

The charter members of the organization still look upon the Miller Road church as their mother church; nearly all of them attend the Sunday morning services, and especially the morning communion services at Miller Road. Their pastor, Mr. Li, was converted in the Miller Road church; he is a man who seems to have the respect of all.

In addition to their running expenses, the church has done not a little in the way of charity and the support of our own mission institutions.

Woman's Work.—The woman's work, in charge of Miss Tonkin, has shown a steady growth. The Sunday school and Christian Endeavor Society are doing good work. Miss Tonkin has a class of twelve women learning to read; several of these accompany her on her country trips. During the year two of these joined the church.

A fortnightly preaching service was begun out beyond the native city; this is well attended, and many seem interested. During the year Miss Tonkin has made two visits to the out-station at Tsung Ming. She reports twenty-six girls and women baptized.

Educational.—The school at Miller Road, in charge of Mr. Shaw, has grown beyond the limits of the schoolroom space. There are now ninety-six older boys, and the number would be much greater were there room for more.

The most pressing need for the Miller Road work is a new building where there will be room to enlarge the work in all its departments. Land has been purchased for this building, and it is hoped that the money for the building will be forthcoming.

Mr. Shaw, in addition to his regular church and school work, is Mission Treasurer and Secretary, which duties consume a great deal of time.

The Yangtsepoo Boys' School, in charge of Mr. Ware, has had a large attendance, but the building is in a dilapidated condition, and new quarters are needed.

A kindergarten for the tiny Chinese boys and girls was opened early in the year, with Mrs. Shaw in charge. This work is new to the Chinese, and not very well understood by them, so it was most encouraging to have ten little tots make their appearance. From the first they were so interested in their work they could scarcely be induced to go home, and now the number has increased to eighteen, all that can be accommodated. The mornings are devoted to regular kindergarten work, and in the afternoon the children receive instruction in the easy Chinese characters.

WUHU.

Evangelistic.—In the fall Mr. and Mrs. Hunt came to Wuhu to be associated in the work, Mr. Hunt taking charge of the Long Street church work until his removal to Chuchow in March. Nightly meetings were held in the chapel throughout the year; these were largely attended by the shopkeepers, clerks, and assistants. Interest in the meetings has grown steadily, and the chapel has been taxed to its utmost. Mr. Shih Kwei Biao, of Chuchow, held a two-weeks' meeting in the spring, and a number of men confessed their willingness to follow the Savior and have joined the inquirers' class. This class meets twice a week to study the Bible and for general instruction along Christian lines. Three men from this class were baptized during the year.

The problem of the "self-supporting church" came up for adjustment during the year: the Chinese Advisory Committee, at the request of the mission, made a full investigation of the mater, and saw clearly that we would have to withdraw from them, as they were walking disorderly. This takes a number from the church roll, but in the end it is a distinct gain, as it will make clear that the church does not stand for unchristian conduct.

The East Gate evangelistic work, which was started a little over a year ago, has been growing. Mr. Paul has had charge of this work. For the first part of the year the nightly meetings had to be held in the Girls' School, which was altogether too small for the numbers who came; in March a larger place was rented and fitted up for the evangelistic services; this place, which seats about 250 people, is well filled at almost every service. In addition to the nightly preaching, daily guest-room work is being done. Mr. Shih Kwei Biao conducted a week's special meetings here in the spring, which attracted many who had not been attending the other services.

OUT-STATIONS.

Wuweichow.—The day school, which last year was so encouraging, had to be closed, as the building was in such poor repair, and several well-equipped Government schools were started in locations that were much more favorable. It is hoped that a suitable place can be rented in a good locality inside the city, where the better class of children can be reached.

The direct evangelistic work has been kept up as much as possible; the church being outside the city in a poor locality, the better class of people can not be reached. Nightly meetings have been conducted during most of the year, and a number of the centers within a radius of thirty miles have been visited and many portions of Scripture sold. As Wuweichow is an important city of about 40,000 inhabitants, and lies in the center of a densely populated district, it is hoped that it may very soon be a resident station.

Educational.—Boys' School.—The work in the Boys' School during the year has been encouraging. There has been a larger attendance and a better quality of work has been done than formerly. Miss Miller has continued her classes in the school, and has also taught a Bible class in English for the teachers.

In the fall a Loyal Temperance Legion was organized among the schoolboys, and they have showed a great deal of enthusiasm and sympathy with the purpose of the Legion.

Girls' School.—The Girls' School, which Miss Dale opened last year, has increased largely, both in numbers and efficiency. Last year there was an average attendance of twenty-four; this year, forty-five. There are two Chinese teachers, both Christians, and they take a deep interest in all departments of the work, especially in the spiritual development of the children. The school is an effective means of gaining entrance into the homes of the children.

Woman's Work.—The first part of the year the services for women had to be conducted in the Girls' School building, but last March a larger chapel was secured, where two weekly evangelistic meetings for women and a Sunday morning service for children are conducted. A daily class for the study of the Chinese character was begun at the Chinese New Year; the women have studied a gospel primer and the Gospel of Mark, and the class has shown gratifying progress. Two of the women in the class have become inquirers. Miss Dale has held monthly meetings for the mothers of the children at her home; the women have been much interested, and there has always been a good attendance.

AFRICA.

STATIONS AND MISSIONARIES.

Bolenge—Dr. R. J. Dye, Mrs. Royal J. Dye, Mrs. A. F. Hensey, E. R. Moon, Mrs. E. R. Moon, R. S. Wilson, Mrs. R. S. Wilson, Miss Edna V. Eck.

Longa.—R. Ray Eldred, Mrs. R. Ray Eldred.

Lotumbe.—C. P. Hedges, Herbert Smith, Mrs. Herbert Smith.

Another twelve months has passed into history, but much has been accomplished in the Congo that no human historian could record, for who can write down the works of the Spirit of God in transforming a heathen race? We try to make our yearly report, but when it is finished we read it over and realize that we have conveyed only the faintest idea of what has really happened.

We now have a total membership in the Congo of 1,187, and baptized during the past year 563.

The work at Longa and the still newer station, Lotumbe, is surpassing our most hopeful dreams. Not only in the work as shown by statistics, but in foundations laid and stronger centers built up, which mean a larger harvest in the future. Nor has the older station, Bolenge, fallen short. The last few months has witnessed the largest gatherings and the largest class baptized that we have ever had at Bolenge.

"What about Monieka?" you ask. This is perhaps the most fruitful center of our work at present. It has been one of our greatest disappointments that, though we have pushed the matter for nearly three years, we have not yet received the grant of a station there. But, brethren, if to-day the Government should grant us Monieka, a greater disappointment awaits us, for with our present force it would be impossible for us to take possession. The Catholics have a station only a few miles from there. Shall we turn this work over to them? With its four hundred Christians, with its sixty-five evangelists that are going out from there? This place where ninety-nine were baptized in one class this year, and seventy-eight in another? We are now holding this work by frequent trips of the "Oregon," but after January 1st there will be no one to run the steamer unless some one stays out here over time (a most perilous thing to do in this climate). Are you coming to Africa this year, or are you going to help some one else to come?

BOLENGE-MONIEKA.

This has been a year filled with joy. Mr. and Mrs. Moon, Mr. Hedges, and Miss Eck have all commenced during the year to speak in public, and to take their part in the services, as they have before in all other parts of the work. One hundred and seventy-eight have been baptized at Bolenge, and fifty-seven evangelists have been supported by the native church and by friends at home.

Evangelistic.—For many years none of the large towns within a day's journey from Bolenge have been willing to hear the gospel, but this year has marked the beginning of splendid works and the erection of churches in four of the largest towns, and just as the year closed the remaining four have also asked for evangelists, one of them building a house for their teacher before asking for one.

In many of the places where teachers have been for years the work has been placed on a more permanent basis by the erection of church buildings. R. S. Wilson made an itinerating trip from Bolenge to the American Baptist Mission at Ikoko, encouraging the evangelists.

The Church.—But this has been a year to try our hearts as well as to fill them with joy. The replacing of the old brass rods with silver currency and the opening of the Congo to free trade has been a severe test to the faith of the native church. The deceitfulness of riches has had its effect on the spiritual life of some of our best Christians, and a certain spirit of worldliness has crept into the church. Yet we who know what Christ has done for them are trusting that he will bring them safely through this testing time.

Work Among the Women.—Special work for and among women has been carried on as usual, though there is not quite the need for that kind of work that there has been in the past. Special meetings for the women have been conducted at Monieka, as well as at Bolenge, by Mrs. Moon and Mrs. Hensey. The Christian women have given of their means and their service to support and care for their poor and sick sisters, especially those afflicted with sleeping sickness. Miss Eck has also assisted in this work.

The Station.—The great event of the year was the coming, on December 20th, of Baby Marion Wilson. This event made it necessary for Mr. Wilson to stay on the station, and as Mr. Hedges, who had been in charge of the workmen the greater part of the year, went to Lotumbe, Mr. Wilson undertook the oversight of a large part of the station work. The Orphanage, schoolhouse, printing office, and dispensary were re-roofed, and the goat and sheep houses rebuilt, as they had been destroyed by a storm. A large native house has just been completed for our workmen. This is 148 feet long by 23 feet wide, with a kitchen about half as large. Just before being occupied by the workmen it served a splendid purpose in sheltering the great host of evangelists and inquirers who have just been in for the last Conference. Mrs. Wilson has not been able to do much definite mission work since their return from Kinshassa, for the care of a baby in this climate, coupled with the care of a home, is for one not overly strong quite enough. But Baby Marion has been a joy and an inspiration to us all.

When Mr. Moon has not been away with the steamer he has helped with the station work, especially in commencing one of the most important works of the year— the erection of the new church. The walls of this fine brick building are now about nine feet high, the window frames are all in, and the timbers and sheet iron for the roof have arrived. We are hoping that it may possibly be finished in time for the Bi-Annual Conference of Congo Missionaries, of which we are to be the hosts in October.

School and Orphanage. The school has been in session ten months of the year, with an average attendance of seventy-five. Since Mrs. Hensey's return to the field in September, she has had a daily class in French, and Mrs. Moon has conducted a special class for women. About the middle of the year a real revival of learning sprang up in the towns surrounding Bolenge, and schools have also been established in these towns. There have been twenty-one girls on the station, seventeen of whom remain, and twelve of whom have been baptized. The school and orphanage have been under the charge of Miss Edna V. Eck.

The Printing Department.—This has been a busy year in the printing office. The new press, given by the church at Mexico, Mo., has been a splendid help. In all the two presses have turned out more than 105,000 pages of printed matter. These include the Lonkundo Grammar, one issue of the Congo Christian, second edition of Mark's Gospel, third edition of the Hymn Book, and the second edition of the school primer, as well as many printed forms, etc. This work was under the charge of C. P. Hedges for eight months, and the rest of the time under that of A. F. Hensey.

Monieka.—The work at this important outpost continues at high tide. Two hundred and sixty-three have been baptized there, and sixty-five evangelists are supported. Five visits have been made there during the year, on one of which R. Ray Eldred, of Longa, and E. R. Moon made a short trip into the interior, visiting all the important towns. The church at Monieka lacks but little now of equaling the membership of the mother church.

New Work.—As the year closed the Baptist Missionary Society turned back to us the out-station in the Mobangi River, which we gave to them six years ago, with the responsibility for that great river. We had thought we dared not occupy any new territory with our present force, but we had started this work in the beginning, and its being returned to us looked so like the finger of God that we could see naught else to do, so have sent there two of the best evangelists.

But how long must we wait for the missionaries who are to carry the good news to the waiting thousands along the banks of the Mobangi River, whose head-waters reach almost to Lake Tchad in the Soudan?

LONGA.

For the first nine months of the year Dr. and Mrs. Jaggard were alone at Longa. Mr. and Mrs. Eldred returned from their furlough early in March, and Dr. and Mrs. Jaggard left for their furlough in April. Thus, with the exception of a few weeks, there has been but one family on the station throughout the year. For the most part these have enjoyed good health. However, Mrs. Jaggard had a severe sickness in October, as did Dr. Jaggard in January.

The work of the station has gone on with but few interruptions throughout the year. Fifty thousand bricks were made by Dr. Jaggard, but not burned. Several acres of additional ground were cleared. Upwards of four thousand feet of lumber sawn, besides considerable work done on Dr. and Mrs. Jaggard's dwelling.

In connection with the church work, Dr. Jaggard was able to make three itinerating journeys into the interior country. These journeys occupied thirty days, and included thirty-five villages representing 120,000 people. Twelve or fifteen of these villages were visited on each of the three journeys. On the longest of these journeys, occupying fifteen days, Mrs. Jaggard was able to accompany the doctor. There have been fifty-five baptisms during the year. Fourteen native evangelists have been in the employ of the church throughout the year. These have been supported entirely by the native church without the aid of money from home. New and large villages are calling for teachers, more young Christians are giving themselves or their money to the work of spreading the "Glad Tidings," and the outlook for the future has never been better.

Since the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Eldred the school has been carried on as usual, but with the addition of a French class. The average attendance for the last part of the year was from seventy to seventy-five. The people have an unusual desire to learn, that they may be able to read the Word of God for themselves.

The medical department has accomplished an unusual amount of good this year by reason of the fact that Dr. Jaggard was able to perform six major operations on natives needing them, and thus, as these go away healed, a great confidence has been gained amongst the people by reason of this special work.

LOTUMBE.

For eight months of the past year Herbert and Mrs. Smith have been alone at Lotumbe. Mr. Hedges was with them the month of December. He returned to Lotumbe in March, and will remain there until his furlough home in October.

This is the first full year's report for Lotumbe as a station. The work is about three years old. The first two years was carried on by native evangelists with an occasional visit of a missionary . The influence of the year's work has been felt throughout this section of the country, and some forty towns have asked for teachers to be sent to them. The church supported five men and their wives and three single men. Three others were supported from the evangelistic fund from the homeland. As a result of their labors, sixty-seven were baptized during the year.

The Sunday School.—The Sunday school has steadily increased at the station until the last Sunday in June when there were 186 present. Five other schools, and part of the time, six other schools, have been conducted in other towns. These schools have borne fruit and some have been baptized as a result. The work was carried on by volunteers.

Christian Endeavor.—A healthy Christian Endeavor has been carried on every Friday night. Practically the whole church membership is included in the society. The meetings have been noted for their enthusiasm and for the number of new converts who take part in the meeting.

Evangelistic Work.—To the faithful work of the evangelists the success of the year's work is to be credited. They have gone into lonely towns far removed from the influence of Christianity. They have built their own little houses to dwell in, and in some places have erected places for the worship of God. They have preached the Word of God, and to their great joy they have seen men snatched as it were like brands from the fire. Africa's redemption rests with these men. Their faithfulness will win this country for the Lord. We do not ask the churches at home to support the native evangelists only to a very limited extent, but we ask that the churches of the homeland send us sufficient missionaries to train the native evangelists. Each missionary on the field is trying to do two and may be three men's work. If more time could be spent in training the native church the offerings would be larger, and if more time could be given to the evaneglists their work would be better and there would be more converts. We marvel at the work these men do when they have so little opportunity to train their minds and develop their characters. Surely it is because "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts."

Educational.—Because of unavoidable absence from the station, sickness, and lack of teachers (the missionaries being the only teachers since January, 1911), the educational part of the work has not been kept up as it should. The interest has been good, and many have attended the classes regularly. The average attendance has been about fifty.

Woman's and Girls' Work.—Two special meetings a week are held for the women, Sunday morning and Wednesday afternoon. Once a month an open meeting is held, in which all the women are encouraged to take part.

On September 10, 1910, the girls' work was opened at Lotumbe, when two little girls were given to the mission. Two months later another litle girl was given to the mission. Since the beginning of the year four little girls have been redeemed, making a total of seven girls ranging from six to fourteen years of age. They are bright, healthy girls. Since coming to the station two have become Christians. The others are attending the inquirers' class. These, we hope, some day will establish Christian homes.

Dispensary.—The dispensing of medicine has had its influence on the work. Lives have been saved and hearts of people have been turned to the Word. It was reported here that when a man was sick with pleurisy, no medicine could cure him and that he would die in a few days. The missionaries listened to this report, and in a short time one of the Christians was sick with pleurisy, and they soon learned one of the reasons why so many people die with this disease. It is a native custom when a person is sick and fever high to wash him from head to foot with hot water and then cold. In many cases the treatment is fatal, because they can not take the proper care of the patient after the bath. In the case of the Christian, they wanted him to take the hot and cold water treament, but the missionaries steadily refused; and although they nearly lost hope, the man is to-day well and at work. The idea that pleurisy means death is about gone. Four thousand, six hundred and forty persons have received medicine, some coming many miles by land or canoe to get it.

The Station.—A staff of workmen has been kept at work during the year. Messrs. Hedges and Smith have shared in this work. Mr. Hedges is erecting a fine missionary building. They will be delighted once more to sit with a board floor beneath them instead of the mud one which they now use.

We have every reason to be encouraged about the work in general. Lotumbe is a strategic point, and we feel that there is a great future before her if she proves true to her trust.

Steamer Department.— Since last October we have had the realization of the dream of our African missionaries for years in the steamship "Oregon."

At the time of writing last year's report, Mr. Moon and Mr. Wilson were busy getting the "Oregon" ready for launching, but that is a thing of the past now, for on October 25, 1910, she left Kinshassa with a heavy load of cargo for Bolenge and the up-river stations; she arrived at Bolenge and was tendered a grand reception, all our Congo missionaries being present, and the bank of the river lined with natives anxious to see our new steamer. The trip from the Pool was not a fast one, but it was a safe one, which is even better than speed. Upon arrival at Bolenge, Mr. Wilson had to give up the steamer work for a time, but Mr. Moon more than proved himself master of the situation and went right ahead with the unfinished work till completed.

Since her arrival at Bolenge she has made about 4,000 miles on the Congo, Bosira, Momboyo, and Lulanga Rivers and Lake Tumba. The "Oregon" in her usefulness is proving to be all that we had hoped for.

We are more and more convinced that we made no mistake by having our boat made in America, for in points of strength of hull, comfortably arranged cabins, and economy in running expenses she is not surpassed, if equaled, by any other boat out here, and there are but few of them faster.

The "Oregon" will be the means of carrying the gospel to thousands if you will give us plenty of men to man our stations and keep the boat busy.

Aparri.—Evangelists, 2.

Nine eventful years have passed since work under the auspices of the Foreign Christian Missionary Society was undertaken in the Philippines. For the ninth year both missionaries and their supporters have reason to thank the Father of mercies.

The Force.—The missionary force has been decreased, we are sorry to say, by the return home of a husband and wife and a single woman worker. However, Donald C. McCallum and wife have joined the Vigan station, and the family of Dr. Lemmon cheered his heart by their arrival. The children of Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe have rounded into good health after much illness. In October Mr. Hanna was demonstrated to have been relieved by four operations of a bone infection, which resulted from typhoid fever. Miss Siegfried, of Laoag, was graciously raised from a serious attack of typhoid pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Kershner, of Manila, almost broke down under stress of work, but after several weeks of absolute rest they have been able to resume their duties with a promise of service until furlough time. Mr. and Mrs. McCallum found it difficult to adjust their bodies to a tropical climate, but they seem now to have the task accomplished.

The Evangelistic Work.—The preaching of the good tidings has been carried on aggressively with our meager forces, and the Word has grown and multiplied. The ten per cent reduction in remittances curtailed to some extent the efficiency of the evangelistic force, and the evangelists of Ilocos Norte deserve great credit for submitting to a corresponding decrease in their monthly stipend. Three evangelists in the Aparri station, six in the Laoag, five in the Vigan, and four in the Manila station served through the year and gave full proof of their ministry. We regret to record that Buenaventura Garcia, a prince among Filipino workers, has been incapacitated by advancing tuberculosis. His retirement from active service was a blow to our city work in Manila. The liberal scholarships established by the Government, and the high wages paid in the civil service are proving strong attractions away from the work of preaching, and we request the prayers of the readers that God may raise up here a ministry, educated, full of grace and power to serve him and his people.

The additions recorded have not been so many as in some other years. This is not strange considering the increasing vigilance of the priests and the ever-growing number of friars and nuns (mostly Belgian) who are coming to the aid of the papal cause. In the Manila station two hundred and thirty seven (237) were added to the Lord; three hundred and fifty-eight (358) in the Laoag station (many of them coming from paganism); ninety-one (91) in Ilocos Sur, and Abra (Vigan Station), and eighty-five (85) in the Aparri district sealed their faith by primary obedience; in all, seven hundred and seventy-one (771) souls who will seek for glory, honor, and immortality, and have eternal life, we sincerely hope.

The Churches.—The infant churches are beginning to house themselves with but little cost to us. In the Manila station chapels were dedicated during the year at San Roque, Sisiman, and Wawa. A $300 chapel is in process of erection at Lilio. These were all built or are being built without any expense to the mission. In the Laoag station two houses of worship were built, that in Pasuquin having been dedicated by Secretary Rains. In Vigan station one chapel was dedicated during the year, one was brought to the roofing stage, and lumber is being gathered for three others. The chapels the native brethren build unaided are often made of the cheapest materials, but they are in conformity to the houses in which the brethren live and they are not disposed to complain. In a number of important centers, however, our work will not prosper as it ought unless we see to the erection of substantial chapels in those places.

Our work owes much to the more than one hundred volunteer preachers who nobly supplement our few evangelists in calling men to repentance and in caring for the churches. They help on the Lord's cause at their own charges, and their reward shall be great. It is increasingly evident that the house-to-house method must be more largely employed in evangelization here. Street meetings have lost their novelty, are being disregarded, are being hampered by town ordinances, and frequently disturbed by rowdies. Many Bible institutes have been held, in some cases by the evangelists alone, for the instruction of those who can not attend school and are anxious to become more efficient servants of the Master. The results have been splendid. The year has witnessed a gratifying interest in the Sunday or Bible school. Many new schools have been established, men and women started as teachers, and old and young interested in Bible study. We are beginning to develop a Sunday school literature and to hold conferences for the training of officers and teachers. The parents are not yet alive to the value of the Sunday school for their children; so we have a task before us.

From time to time we notice, or there is brought to our attention, the great change in the lives of some of our converts—a true wonder in the eyes of their fellows, and our hearts are encouraged. We have joy in that the lapses back to the old life are not more numerous than they are.

The work is great. Opposition is intense. Reinforcements are demanded. More money should be available for the native ministry. Lack of funds has forced the discontinuance of an evangelist among the pagan Alzados of Abra Province, of whom there are some fifty baptized. Fifteen dollars a months would enable us to take up this work again. The thousands of pagan Tinguians ought to have the Bread of Life, but we can not give it to them. In Ilocos Norte a splendid beginning has been made among the Apayaos and Tinguians. The problem is how with an empty treasury to shepherd these converts. Again the appeal has come for a missionary to be located in Aparri, which seaport may be made a harbor for vessels direct from San Francisco and Kobe. The teeming Tagalog population should be given another missionary and more evangelists. How shall they preach except they be sent?

The training of native women workers in our field is another problem we have not been able to solve. The work of other missions shows that there is a large field of usefulness for the trained native women. Woman is the strength of the native pagan cults and of Romanism as well, and must be a great factor in supplanting both with the gospel of grace. A school for girls or a training-school for young women would seem to be a necessity.

The Medical Work.—Medical Missions here are living up to their record in other lands. The good name of the medical work in the Laoag station, built up by Dr. Pickett, has been preserved and even enhanced by Dr. Lemmon, upon whom the work devolved when the former left on furlough. private house that he devoted to hospital purposes has been well filled during the year. Operations, internal and external, major and minor, simple and complex, have been performed, including the removal of tumors of all sorts and sizes, amputations, cataracts removed, and even to making a piece of cheek to serve for the entire nose and a part of a lip as well. People of all races and creeds have been treated, and they all rise up to call the doctor blessed.

Two young women, Barbara and Irene, have received training in the hospital. They are quite efficient aids. The three young men in the dispensary gave good service, and the free clinic, which is preceded by a song service, has been well patronized. Branch dispensaries under the care of native evangelists were established. People in out-of-way places could obtain simple remedies cheaply. The decreasing revenues of an apothecary, and a very stringent pharmacy act which works to the interests of the pharmacists, has forced the discontinuance of the branch dispensaries, much to the detriment of the poor people.

The Roman Church testifies that medical mission work pays, for it is beginning to employ the same to assist it in regaining the confidence of the people, which it had forfeited by decades and centuries of neglect. In previous years (and to some extent yet) it employed charms, relics, and reputed powers of the saints to effect cures, but these can not compete with surgery, hygiene, nursing, quinine, castor oil, and the like.

On the return of Dr. Pickett from furlough, Dr. Lemmon will go to Manila to open up medical work there. His work during the year and a half at Laoag has brought him great joy and has helped on the Kingdom. The field we have mapped out to cultivate calls for two doctors in addition to the two mentioned. We rejoice that Dr. Pickett is to bring with him the funds for a hospital building in Laoag. The medical work in this field will be an increasing source of revenue, and even now some native workers are being aided from the treasury. A doctor's life and the money given for his support is a splendid investment every way in the Philippine Islands.

The Educational Work.—Our educational work has not flourished like the green bay tree, but it is the grain of mustard planted and already growing. Bible teaching has been carried on in Vigan in connection with dormitory work for students, who range from the fifth grade to the fourth year of high school. It can be understood that not many hours a day can be exacted from such students, but these hours and Saturday mornings are made to count. The study is confined to text and outline work of the Bible, Church History, Homiletics, Pastoral Theology, and music. During the summer vacation several of the students rendered good service in preaching and in teaching in the Sunday school. Several students paid their way by working in the printing office and in janitor and dining-room service. Some paid half their board money, and twelve students paid all. The teaching has all been done in English, but it has become evident that we must open work for young men who have not had public school advantages. Mr. McCallum has already entered upon his duties in the Bible school and enjoys his association with the bright young students. Uncertainty as to the ultimate location of the provincial high school has hindered our purchase of the site for the College of the Bible, but some of the preliminary work necessary to the purchase of all land in the Orient has been done. If we could be sure that our brotherhood would enable us, we could enter into profitable college work in Vigan, for here is a great center of education among the Romanists.

Educational work in the Manila station has moved along the modest lines of former years. The dormitory in the Mission House has been kept full and many have been turned away. Many Ilocano young men desire to lodge with us when they come to the city, but the dormitory is especially for those Tagalog young men who, we believe, give promise of becoming evangelists and useful workers in the Kingdom. Several daily Bible classes have been maintained and students have been given practical experience in preaching; also a daily class in vocal music has been maintained under the direction of Mrs. Kershner. Some thirty students have been enrolled in these classes. Besides this, there has been maintained a day school for children of the lowest grades, in which some fifteen have been in attendance.

The call for advanced steps in our educational work in Manila is insistent. Two courses are open to us. We may join with the Methodists, Presbyterians, United Brethren, Baptists, and Episcopalians in building up a Union Christian College in Manila, as we have been invited to do, maintaining a Bible school of our own near to but independent of the Union College; or, we may build a large dormitory and Bible school so that we can reach the students of the great Philippine University. Either of these projects is a worthy one, and if we were able to engage in both lines of work God would be glorified. Education is in the air, and the richest and poorest are breathing it in. But the Government does not permit education in the Bible, either in public or high schools or in the university. Christian people and institutions as such must save education here as well as elsewhere from being un-religious or anti-religious. Mr. Kershner should be freed from other cares so that he may devote himself entirely to the training of young men for the ministry, or some one should be sent out for that particular service.

The Press.—The press or printing branch of our work has been active. Mr. Wolfe has edited the Tagalog monthly, and the paper is growing in influence. For most of the year Mr. Hanna has edited the Ilocano weekly, having added a Sunday school section. The Philippine Christian has gone forth every month to keep the constituency in touch with the workers and the work. Many thousands of tracts for sale and for free distribution have been issued. Special efforts have been put forth to cripple the tract and literature work. Romanists have been forbidden to receive tracts when offered them. Many seek to avoid the tracts by denying that they know how to read. Priests have burned tracts and Bibles, and rowdy children receive tracts and tear them up. But still there are thousands that get into the hands of earnest readers.

A beginning has been made in the investment of the $5,000 gift of Mr. and Mrs. Miner J. Allen. Some new type and the largest hand press made have been ordered. Commercial business in the press has increased, and we hope to build up a self-supporting publishing work.

The undermanned condition of all our stations has interfered with the preparation of original or translation manuscript which can be turned into permanent literature. It is fitting that we give a cheap but first-class literature to the Filipinos which presents the truth in its simple New Testament style.

Work Among Americans.—A small congregation of Americans has met every Lord's day for worship in one of the salas of the Mission House in Manila, that has been regularly ministered to by the missionaries. A Bible class, a mid-week prayer-meeting, and a Christian Workers' Society of women have been maintained as efficient auxiliaries. The congregation some time ago fulfilled the requirements as to attendance and contributions, placed upon it by the mission to entitle it to make an appeal to the society for funds to build a chapel, the congregation to provide the land. The failure to receive the expected help came as a sore disappointment to the little congregation. But we still have hopes that the long-looked-for help will be forthcoming soon. Manila has a resident population of some four thousand Americans, besides the soldiers and sailors. Thousands of others from other parts of the islands and from abroad visit Manila. Among these are many of our own brethren. It would seem imperative that we have at least a modest equipment to care for our fellow-countrymen who are out here subject to influences that are peculiarly insidious and destructive of character.

Visit of Mr. and Mrs. Rains.—The visit of Mr. and Mrs. Rains was an event with us. We rejoice that he came, but regret that his schedule was not elastic enough to admit of his spending some time among the native churches themselves. They were with us in our annual convention, and helped us by fellowship and counsel. Now that Brother Rains knows our field better, we trust that he shall be able to present even better than before the claims of the Philippines both as to equipment and missionaries.

In conclusion, we ask the believing prayers of all our brethren for our work. The enemy is strong and aggressive; the Government leans Romewards; the strenuous, money-chasing American life is being introduced; our fellow-countrymen are alas! too often hindrances, stumbling blocks, and enemies, but we preach that gospel which is God's power unto salvation, and we serve him who has sworn to give the heathen for an inheritance to the Son. We are not discouraged, but we wish to feel that the prayers of thousands who give their money are seconding our every effort.

Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift, for the privilege of telling the story of Jesus and his love, and for the honor to be your representatives and to give evidence of your love to the Filipinos!

ENGLAND.

We have again to report, that so far as numerical progress is concerned, our work is not a marked success. The loss of West London Tabernacle, and the closing of the little work at Chorley, through financial difficulties, have had a marked influence upon our statistics for the year. It was hoped for a time that the work at West London might be continued in Tabernacle Hall, but the entire property having been disposed of in the course of the year, and it being found impossible to secure another place of meeting, there was nothing to do but close the work. We feel, however, that the faithful labors of past years have not been without avail. Many preachers and missionaries have been sent out who are still preaching the Gospel to the ends of the earth. The erection of the splendid new Church at Hornsey in part compensates for the loss of West London Tabernacle. The total cost of this property is about twenty-one thousand dollars. The erection has been made possible through a loan from our Christian Association Building Loan Society and from the Sunday School Union and by a splendid gift of seven thousand dollars from Mr. Charles Traxler, late of Akron, Ohio, and by the consecrated offerings of the Church members. The Sunday Schools in the majority of our Churches show an encouraging increase in both teachers and scholars.

A manifesto on Christian Union, concerning which a resolution was passed at the Anglo-American Conference, was prepared during the year and sent to sixteen different denominations. It was suggested in this that these denominations should co-operate in the formation of a "Christian Union League." The manifesto has been cordially received in some quarters, and others are to give their decision as soon as opportunity offers to lay the matter before their committees.

As a result of last year's Conference negotiations have been carried on during the year with what we commonly call the Old Brethren. A paper has been prepared by each of us setting forth what we consider the teaching of the New Testament concerning four points: (1) Christian Union, (2) The Ministry of the Church, (3) The financial support of the Church, (4) Communion at the Lord's Table. These four points cover the main differences between us, and the papers are now being examined, and doubtless further negotiations will be carried on in an endeavor to find a common basis.

Literature has been circulated throughout the country, and also in some foreign parts. Application was received from a Chinese Christian in Singapore. Literature was sent to him and he has intimated his desire to circulate certain tracts and leaflets in large numbers in the field with which he is familiar. One of our tracts was sent to a Christian in Bulgaria, which he has had translated into the Bulgarian language, and reports that it is being most favorably received by many.

The Church at Acton, for a time indirectly connected with us, has decided to discontinue that connection, as they desire to return to their former practice of receiving members without immersion. As an offset to this, application has been received from a body of immersed believers at Neston, in Cheshire, desiring membership with the Christian Association.

The total amount of money raised during the year is in excess of that of last year by about six thousand dollars. We again express our deep gratitude to the Foreign Christian Missionary Society for the generous financial support given us during the past year.

Four of our preachers and a large number of members from various Churches have gone away to America and Canada during the year. Some of the latter to take up work in some one of our colleges in preparation for the ministry. T. S. Buckingham, associated twenty years ago with the work at West London Tabernacle, but who has been for some years past in America, has taken the work up at Southampton. This is the only addition to our ministerial forces during the year.

A small volume containing the addresses delivered at the Anglo-American Conference on Christian Union has been issued, and it is hoped will contribute something to the cause of Christian Union.

Matanzas—Melvin Menges, Mrs. Melvin Menges; native helpers, 1.

Outstations—Union, Cidra, Jovellanos.

The principal work of the year so far as the Matanzas Church is concerned, has been the erection of the new Mission Building. This has needed constant attention and supervision and all other phases of the work have had to wait upon it. There have been many difficulties to overcome, but now that the work is practically complete, the mission finds itself comfortably housed in a commodious structure of stone and concrete that compares most favorably with any of the buildings of the city and which has cost much less than the outlay usually required for similar edifices. It is situated in the choicest spot in the whole city for our purpose, and we already find our cause enjoying a prestige that all the labor of the previous years had not been able to bring it.

The work at Union de Reyes has been carried on steadily all the year by the pastor, Jacobo Gonzlez. The number of additions has not been large, but the growth in other ways has been satisfactory. There has been an especial development in the grace of giving. A number of the young men of this congregation have reached the point where they are capable of directing the services in the absence of the pastor, and have made themselves useful by so doing.

The work inaugurated in the town of Jovellanos last year was greatly impeded by the impossibility for a long time of securing a building in which to hold the services. Such a house was not secured until the beginning of the present year. It was fitted up and weekly services were begun at once. After six months of regular work, we can report a good Sunday School and a number of people baptized. Brother Julio Fuentes, who has charge of this work, is more and more proving himself adapted to the work to which he has given himself and fulfilling early promise of becoming a strong preacher. He has had strong opposition to overcome and some very serious problems to solve, but has constantly shown rare good sense as well as patience, industry and consecration.

More than a year ago I baptized in Matanzas a man from the village of Manguito. On his return to his home he wrote me repeatedly begging that I visit them and preach to them. I was unable to do so until the beginning of the present year. I found one of the most intelligent and attentive audiences that it has been my good fortune to address in Cuba. I remained with them over two nights, speaking to large numbers of people, and employing the day in answering the questions of the numerous persons who came to see me. The last night I organized a class for Bible study, composed of some thirty people. This class continued to meet regularly each week for a study of the Scriptures until the coming of the rainy season made its continuance difficult. I have continued visiting them once a month, and as a result there are in the village and surrounding country probably twenty-five people who are ready to be baptized. The outlook is splendid for a strong congregation in this village and one that will provide its own leadership to a degree that few congregations are able to do. Lack of funds as well as time has prevented more frequent visits and so hindered the instruction and guidance that are so necessary at this stage.

On the whole, the year has been an exceedingly busy one—the fullest of all the years spent on this field. The demands of the work already established have been many. The open doors of opportunity have been more alluring than ever before. The burden has been great and the need of helpers is urgent. We have felt ourselves exceedingly small and weary for the great task that has been before us. The great need and the belief that it is ours to sow and our Father's to give the increase has sustained us, and it is with confidence in His strength that we face the future.

TURKEY.

GARABED KEVORKIAN.

Our work in Turkey at the present time needs some one to visit the churches and to encourage the people to be strong in the Lord and to continue in the truth that is preached to them. Since my return from the United States I have been doing this, and the Lord has blessed my efforts by adding twenty-nine new members. I wish I could visit all our people in the country, but it is almost impossible for one man to do this. There are now several new missionary societies working in Turkey. The Jesuits are pushing their work with numerous priests, nuns, schools, and colleges. The Mormon missionaries are going over the country seeking to make proselytes. The Sabbatarians are grievous wolves using every means to deceive the simple-minded with their plausible speech. I am sorry to say that they were successful in seducing a few of our people in various parts of the country. There are three other missionary societies working in Turkey. We have no schools, no teachers, no evangelists, no meeting houses, except in two or three places. I am alone in the Turkish field and am trying to do what little good I can. This I will continue to do as long as the Lord permits.

SCANDINAVIA.

JULIUS CRAMER.

Denmark.—The year has been one of blessing in all parts of the mission. We have grown in numbers and have given more for the work at home and also for the work in heathen lands. The church in Denmark is a missionary church. The interest of the members in the work is growing. The outlook for the future is good. We wish we could reach all parts of the country with the primitive gospel. We need a traveling evangelist who could go from town to town preaching the gospel. The State church seems to be reaching after the truth as it is in Jesus. A feeling of dissatisfaction as to her own theories is apparent, so that the time will come when there will be a greater need of our work than ever before. We expect this year to hold a revival meeting in the month of November. We ask the brethren to pray for us. The standing of the church is good. We thank the Lord for his leading and blessing.

Sweden.—The reports from Sweden are good. The church has its meeting every Lord's day. This last summer they have held meetings out-of-doors with large audiences. At Christmas time they provided clothing for about thirty children. The Sunday school is in a flourishing condition, especially in the one in Linhaum.

AUSTRALIA.

FOREIGN MISSIONARY COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

Preamble.

With the pleasure that comes as a result of mighty things achieved for God, and great blessings received from God, this report is submitted to Conference. The missionary spirit was never stronger than at the present time, when the furthest sin-cursed race is at the very finger tips of the church.

1.—India.

India, the land of 300,000,000 people, makes strong demands upon us. We have some of our choicest workers there.

(a) Harda.—Miss Mary Thompson, our first representative from Australia, still labors at Harda. She works amongst the women and children. They love her, and are beginning to love her Savior. Her constant going from door to door, closed to every other white face, and her weekly meeting with the Christian women, have meant much for the work. Sarubai, our Bible woman, and M. J. Shah, our native evangelist, are doing an ever-increasing work. The plague has again been severe, but through it all these heroes for God toil till the harvest home. God will have great rewards in heaven for them, but especially for our first missionary of the cross.

(b) Our Australian Station.—We rejoice to have at our Conference our Brother and Sister H. H. Strutton, from Baramati. They are well beloved by the Committee, and by the district in which they labor. The Committee have the utmost confidence in them and their work. From their lips we will hear of the work at Baramati, Diskal, and Tandalwadi.

Associated with them in their work is nurse Edith Terrell. Her letters glow with the enthusiasm she shows in her work. She took 1,293 cases last year, and gave 2,244 treatments. She not alone attends the dispensary, but is called out to visit the villages around. Many a door has been opened to her, and with her medical skill on one hand and the Bible in the other, she carries her message to the hearts of a sin-cursed race. Language study also engages her attention, and good progress is being made.

Miss Rosa F. Tilley has only lately been added to our staff, and being one of our Sunday school scholars in Victoria a few years ago, we are glad that she is now a representative of ours in India. She has spent some years in India, and is a children's specialist. She teaches classes amongst Brahmins and low castes separately, but gradually these same children will unite on a common basis and will sit together around the one table to worship the one God. Miss Tilley's work is slow but sure, for she is writing Christianity upon the hearts of little children until Christ be formed in their souls.

Seven native workers also labor diligently for God at our Australian station. We have also accepted Mr. and Mrs. H. Watson to labor at Baramati. They will proceed to India in September.

(c) Daltonganj.—We are linked to Daltonganj by the fact of assisting to support some of the workers. Benjamin Sahay, a native evangelist, is supported by the Glenelg, S. A., young people. He is a young man of excellent promise. Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Pittman, working under the British Committee, are being greatly blessed in health and strength and language study. Their labors are also bearing fruit, and the Pearl of the East is the richer for their presence. Miss A. D. Allan arrived in Daltonganj in October, and is working at her own charges and is a great comfort to our brother and sister. Various brethren and churches send contributions from time to time, and the Committee desire to be informed of contributions, so as to be able to credit the respective States, and allow money to go through the official channels. May the Lord bless Daltonganj!

2.—China.

China, with its vast population, vast territory, yet vaster possibilities, is challenging our attention.

In Shanghai we have Miss Rosa L. Tonkin, whose work is highly appreciated by the Foreign Christian Missionary Society, under whom she labors. She conducts three weekly women's meetings at Yangtsepoo, the Institute, and Loongking chapels, besides the Sunday services. Her Bible woman is assisting nobly in the work. She has adopted several young Chinese girls, and these are being trained to become Bible women in the years to be. One very interesting case might be mentioned. Lai Poo, a bright young girl, was cast out by her parents when she was four years of age on account of her feet dropping off, as the result of foot-binding. She is now eighteen years of age, and this year our Committee supplied the money to enable artificial feet to be purchased for her. She is now using them, and the world seems a new world to her in her brighter life. She is but one of the many who are in daily touch with our faithful missionary.

3.—Japan.

Japan has a population of 52,000,000, of whom only 100,000 are Christians, and a large per cent of these have no church home. About 45,000,000 are yet untouched in the Land of the Rising Sun. We are trying to touch some of them through Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Davey, who labor in Tokyo. Mr. Davey is considered by authorities to be one of the most useful missionaries in the whole of Japan. He preaches, teaches, evangelizes, and finds time to do other work. He is Treasurer of the Standing Committee of Co-operative Missions, which organization includes nineteen missions, and is on the executive of the National Sunday School Association. In it all he first and foremost labors for the souls of the Japanese, and is doing his share so that, to use his own words, "the evangelistic spirit shall be fanned into flame, that the gospel may spread like wildfire." Mrs. Davey labors among the women most earnestly. Her musical talents are often availed of. She trained the Koishikawa children for their first Children's Day exercises. A monthly meeting for the mothers is also held. She writes: "Our work is bright with promise; may we pursue it prepared for glad service!"

4.—New Hebrides.

The fair isles of the sea, like gems in the Pacific, shine with tropical splendor, but our work there shines brighter far, and in the world to come many a dusky South Sea islander will be a gem in the crown of the missionaries Purdy and Filmer.

(a) Aoba.—At last Conference negotiations were in progress re this important work. We rejoice to say that the Committee have great pleasure in the work at Aoba, and not a single regret that the work has been taken over by us. Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Purdy are doing a great work. They hold the record of 166 Kanakas baptized during the year. The island has running through it a chain of meeting houses in which one hundred meetings are held every Lord's day. Mr. Purdy has been ill and was compelled to spend a month on Norfolk Island, but is now enjoying better health. Of Mr. Purdy it can be said, as also of Mr. Filmer, on Pentecost: "In perils often. In perils by sea, in perils by land. In perils by earthquake, in perils by hurricane. In perils by savages, in perils by evil traders. Perils from within, and perils from without." Yet none of these things move them if but souls be saved and God be glorified. The call has come for an additional worker to work the northeast of Aoba, and to also cross to the island of Maewo and establish a station there. This is now having the earnest consideration of the Committee.

(b) Pentecost.—Our workers, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Filmer, are working in the spirit and power of the Pentecostal gospel, and the Lord is adding to the church almost daily those who are being saved. The letters of our brother show him to be a self-sacrificing, consecrated hero, who places Christ and his work first, and personal consideration last. At times fever still has its effect on both Mr. and Mrs. Filmer, but gradually that is being overcome. A number of the natives have been set to work clearing the ground surrounding the house, and the place is now almost fever-proof. A little industrial work is also being undertaken in the planting of the cocoanut palm. They write letters of appreciation for the old clothes and books, etc., that have been sent down from time to time for distribution amongst the natives. The motor boat, the "Endeavor," is in constant use and is of great assistance. By reference to the statistics some idea of the great work that is being done can be gathered. We are proud of our workers on Pentecost, and pray God to bless them more and more.

5.—Chinese Mission.

The labors of Mr. Jame, our Chinese evangelist, are being spent in New South Wales this year, and the meetings in Sydney have increased considerably. In Mr. Jame we have a convert from our own mission, and one in whom the Committee place great confidence. He shows great suitability for the work, and has the ordination of the pierced hands. In each center where work is conducted—Adelaide, Melbourne, Perth, and Sydney—a large staff of honorary teachers and workers continue their good work. This department of our work pays. One has but to view the fine converts who are made to appreciate the mission. A visit to the Chinese church in Melbourne on a Lord's day morning would open the eyes of the skeptical. Mr. Jos. Pittman continues as the beloved superintendent of the work in Melbourne. Apart from the usual classes, a meeting for Bible study is held every Saturday night. Miss A. Baker, as Secretary of the Melbourne Mission, writes: "We are delighted to report splendid meetings. During the month (March) we had an average attendance of twenty-eight teachers and thirty-two scholars. The members are increasing, and much interest is taken."

6.—Statistical.

We publish for the first time statistics of our work and of the Foreign Christion Missionary Society of the United States of America. We regret not being able to publish British and New Zealand statistics, which have not been procurable to date. Statistics are always difficult to procure, and when available do not always give a correct view of the situation. The schedules submitted are compiled after much careful correspondence, and we believe our work to be even better than the figures can give an idea of. The returns from Pentecost, of members at last report, losses by death and other causes, really cover the full time Mr. Filmer has labored in the island. The additions mentioned are for this year only. It brings Pentecost right up to date for future statistics. Our own figures are up to December 31, 1910. The Foreign Christian Missionary Society figures are up to October 1, 1910.

On account of Mr. and Mrs. Davey and the Misses Thompson and Tonkin and several Bible women and native workers being our workers, but laboring under the Foreign Christian Missionary Society, it has been found impossible to divide the figures, hence the whole of the figures for those fields show. This must be taken into consideration. A careful survey of the statistics shows what a vast amount of work is being done.

7.—Financial.

Once again the Committee are under great obligations to the brotherhood for continued liberality. This year we record the largest income ever received. For the State of Victoria the receipts amounted to £905/16/3, of which £137/5/11 was expended for support of Chinese Mission in Victoria, and £37 for special contributions by the sisters of Victoria for Bible women under the direction of Miss Thompson and Mrs. Strutton in India, and Miss Tonkin in China. The balance (£731/10/4) formed part of the general expenditure by Federal Committee.

The income from all the States for foreign mission work amounts to £3,185/10/3, which, added to balance on hand last March, makes a total of £3,297/13/2. A small amount of £7 2 3 owing to New South Wales Treasurer, makes the total on receipts side £3,304/15/5.

The expenditure amounts to £2,516 8 3, while £600 has been invested at call, which will provide for new outlay in connection with the Australian station at Baramati, India, when we commence the work amongst the Bampta Thieves Colony, and also the projected extension of work at Maewo, the adjacent island to Aoba and Pentecost, where we hope to send a missionary later on.

A balance remains in the hands of the Federal Treasurer of £73/19/5, which, added to balance in hand of South Australian Treasurer of £77/8/6, and Western Australia of £36 19 3, amounts to total of £187/17/2, from which must be deducted £7 2 3 owing to New South Wales Treasurer, leaving a net total balance on hand of £180/14/11. A reference to Mission Property Account shows the value to be £2,601 16 5, which is all paid for except the amount due on Chinese Mission Building, Melbourne, as shown in statement.

The Foreign Mission Committee are looking forward to another year of progressive work.

8.—Editorial.

Probably no single cause has contributed to the success of the year so much as the Australian Christian and Pure Words. In each issue of these papers the editor grants the Committee one full page for foreign missionary matter. Many have been good enough to pronounce those pages the best of good things. Many other missionary articles appear from time to time. We also thank Mr. Main for his telling foreign missionary matter in the late Christian Endeavor page, and Mr. H. Gray for the missionary leaflets in the treatment of the Sunday school lessons. The Children's Day exercises this year were placed in the hands of Jas. E. Thomas, of Adelaide, South Australia, and proved of great interest and profit to the schools. The Foreign Mission numbers of the Christian and Pure Words were worthy of the great cause of missions, and we believe did much good. To all literary contributors, and to F. G. Dunn, editor of the Australian Christian, we express our gratitude. A number of four-page foreign mission tracts have also been prepared and are doing good service. They can be had from the Organizing Secretary for the asking.

9.—Secretarial.

The Victorian State Committee acted as Federal Executive until a Federal Executive Committee was appointed at the Federal Conference. The States have all been kept in touch with the executive, and no matter of importance is decided until the States have all had the opportunity of discussing the matter. The whole work is being systematized. A constitution is being drawn up. A manual is being prepared. Monthly reports on printed forms are in future to be sent by the missionaries. Printed schedules are being used for candidates, and every department of the work is being molded on a business system. The State Secretaries, G. T. Walden, New South Wales; I. A. Paternoster, South Australia; H. J. Yelland, West Australia; N. J. Warmbrun, Tasmania, and L. Gole, Queensland, have been of great service in correspondence. Mr. Lyall as usual corresponds with the missionaries and send checks and cheer. The Committee members also correspond with missionaries to their joy and profit.

10.—Fraternal.

The spirit of brotherhood was never stronger than in the year past and gone. In our heart we know of but one meaning of the word missions, and can rejoice in all missionary enterprises. The fraternal spirit has been strengthened through the visit of that great man of God, F. M. Rains, who, with Mrs. Rains, made the missionary pulse beat stronger. We thank God for his coming to our land and his month's tour, and express our gratitude to the Foreign Christian Missionary Society of the United States of America for the visit and visitor. We also bear record to the joy we have in Miss Annie D. Allan's going to assist Mr. and Mrs. Pittman at Daltonganj, and Mr. and Mrs. D. C. McCallum's going forth to labor in the Philippine Islands, and Mr. W. Mansill's proceeding to South Africa.

11.—Candidature.

In all the history of the Committee never have there been so many candidates for service as during the past year. Much time and thought was spent in considering the claims of each candidate. The Committee accepted Miss Rosa F. Tilley, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Watson, for India. Miss Tilley is now at Baramati, and Mr. and Mrs. Watson proceed to India in September. Several others have also been encouraged and are taking special studies, and will be sent out, if the Committee are able to send them, when their equipment is complete. In all candidates for the future a high standard will be required, as the foreign field demands our best. Several of the young men students of the College of the Bible are turning their eyes towards the regions beyond, in addition to which the Faculty have consented, if necessary, to prepare lady candidates for the foreign mission field.

12.—Memorabilia.

As usual, many churches, societies, the Bible College, and a few individuals have supported native teachers and orphans. Mrs. Zelius continues her great work in collecting for the support of Bible women for our missionaries. The Victorian Christian Endeavor Union, per Miss Maud Morris, has contributed liberally to the funds. To all who have given or helped in this way the Committee desire to give thanks.

The Federal Foreign Missionary Executive Committee officials are: President, F. M. Ludbrook; Treasurer, R. Lyall; Secretary, T. B. Fischer. For the sake of convenience, the Victorian State and the Federal Executive Committee usually meet together.

Next Conference (D. V.) will be a federal gathering. In view of this it is hoped to have another foreign missionary visitor from the United States of America to bind our two continents closer together, as well as a visit from one of our own missionaries to fan the flame of missionary fire.

13.—Committee.

The Committee have held twelve meetings, and have spent thirty-eight hours in committee deliberations. They have worked heartily, harmoniously, and happily togther. The following is the record of attendances: Appointed by Conference, F. M. Ludbrook, 10; R. Lyall, 11; W. A. Kemp, 11; J. McColl, 11; J. C. F. Pittman, 11; C. A. Quick, 10; T. B. Fischer, 12. Sisters' Representatives, Mrs. R. Lyall, 9; Mrs. J. C. F. Pittman, 6; Mrs. B. Huntsman, 6; Honorary member, Mrs. F. M. Ludbrook (part year only), 4. Federal members: F. M. Ludbrook, R. Lyall, H. Kingsbury, P. A. Dickson, W. A. Kemp, A. R. Main, T. B. Fischer. The Committee meet in the Swanston Street chapel, and hereby desire to thank the officers for the use of the building, and Mr. Dow for his courtesy in his arrangements for the Committees comfort.

14.—Finis.

Much has been done, but God is calling us to do and dare even more. Shall we not this year do it? We can do greater things if we will. We will do greater things, for we can. We can and will do greater things, for our God wills it.

T. B. FISCHER, Organizing Secretary.

THE ANNUITY FUND.

The rapid growth of the Annuity Fund of the Foreign Christian Missionary Society is a striking testimony to the favor with which the plan is regarded by the intelligent men and women who are friends of Foreign Missions.

The Plan.

The Society receives gifts of $100 or more and binds itself by a bond to pay the donors, so long as they shall live, a fair rate of interest. The interest depends upon the age of the donor, and is paid semi-annually. There is no expense for repairs or taxes. At the last the money goes for the advancement of the gospel in all the earth.

Great Advantages.

The advantages of the Annuity Plan to the Foreign Society are obvious.

We repeat a few advantages to the donors:

1. Certainty of Income.—In the judgment of many of our best business men, the character and standing of the Foreign Society makes its bond as safe a guarantee as Government bonds. The interest paid is larger.

2. Permanence.—Most investments are liable to expire within a few years, or to change in value. Reinvestments are often perplexing, and safe and satisfactory ones are difficult to secure. All uncertainties and perplexities of this kind are avoided by the Annuity Plan. The interest is promptly paid when due.

3. Money Does Good.—Money placed in the Annuity Fund begins its usefulness at once, and it goes on repeating itself in blessings for all the years to come.

4. Avoid Cost and Delay.—After death there is no cost or delay of settlement of this part of an estate. You have enjoyed a life income, and the money is now the property of the Foreign Society to carry on the Lord's work. There is no expense or litigation in the settlement of the estate.

As An Investment.

The plan commends itself not only to those who are actually depending upon the income which they receive, but it is also an attractive investment for those who have abundant means, and who desire to make safe and permanent investments. Well-to-do people, having looked about for new investments, have in a number of cases decided to invest several thousand dollars in this way. All such investors can rejoice in knowing that the money will go to objects which are dear to all Christian hearts.

The whole amount raised from the first is $428,215.00.

For further information, correspond with

F. M. RAINS, Secretary, Box 844, Cincinnati, Ohio.

BEQUEST.

In thirty-six years the Foreign Christian Missionary Society has received from bequests the sum of $145,139.67. Some of the larger societies receive that much every year. Bequests amounting to a million or more have been made. One amounted to five million. More people possessed of money or property should be arranging to give a part or all to the Lord's work. They may need their means now in their business or to support themselves. On this account they may not be able to give now as generously as they desire. But they should take such steps as are necessary that their estates may go on doing good for all time to come. Mrs. Tubman bequeathed $30,000 to the Foreign Society; Albert Allen, $10,000; Dr. Gerould, $9,000; Timothy Coop, $5,000; others have given smaller amounts. These bequests have been of untold value to the Society in its work.

Christian people often leave their property to those who have an abundance of their own. God can hardly look with favor on such a bestowment, with the present great need of the world. Many invest in earthly monuments. The best and most lasting monument is not of granite or marble, but of perpetuated good deeds. Some people make no provision whatever for their property before death, thus leaving a great power for good unused and undirected by themselves.

A thousand millions of people are yet without the Gospel. God has intrusted to us the evangelization of the world. As Jesus Christ becomes a blessing to us, we must pass the blessing on. What is necessary for one man is necessary for a world of men. Money is the medium for carrying the message. Money will do more now for the spread of the Gospel in heathen lands than ever before. Never before has the opportunity been so great, or the responsibility so heavy. Why not execute your will so that the money will go on preaching the Gospel through the future years? How shall Christ's stewards, to whom much has been given, render a good account of their stewardship? How shall they make their memory precious and fragrant long after they have passed from earth? Monuments of wood and stone crumble to dust; but the kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, into which we build, shall endure to the glory and honor of His name, when time shall be no more.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I also give and bequeath to the Foreign Christian Missionary Society, a corporation existing under the laws of the State of Ohio, the sum of $..... for the purposes of the Society, as specified in the Act of Incorporation. And I hereby direct my executor (or executors) to pay said sum to the Treasurer of said Society, taking his receipt therefor, within..... months after my decease.

I also give, bequeath, and devise to the Foreign Christian Missionary Society one certain lot of land with the building thereon standing (here describe the premises with exactness and particularity) to be held and possessed by the said Society, their successors and assigns forever, for the purposes specified in the Act of Incorporation.

All the rest and residue of my estate, of whatever form or character, I give, devise and bequeath to .....

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this .....day of....., 191..

Signed.....

(Here sign your name in the presence of three witnesses. None of the witnesses should be interested in the will.)

The Christian Duty of Giving.

GEORGE MULLER.

Are all the Christian readers giving systematically to the Lord's work, or are they leaving it to feeling, to impression made upon them through particular circumstances, or to striking appeals? If we do not give from principle systematically, we shall find that our one brief life is gone before we are aware of it, and that, in return, we have done little for that adorable One who bought us with his precious blood, and to whom belongs all we have and are. As the Lord is pleased to entrust us with means, by the labor of our hands, or in our business or profession, or even through presents, legacies, or in any other way we may be supplied by him with means, we should consider that we are his stewards, and that he would have us to use our money for him. By this I do not mean that ordinarily we should give away all that we possess as fast as we receive anything from the Lord; but after considering our duty to our families and other particular obligations, we should ask ourselves, "How much can I now spare for the poor, or for the work of God?" As the Lord prospers us, as he entrusts us with means, we should give or lay aside for giving till calls are made upon us. The principle of thus acting is plainly set forth in 1 Cor. 16: 2: "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him." This passage, it is well known, refers, as to its literal application, to a collection to be made for the poor Jewish believers in Palestine who were in need at the time this letter was written to the church at Corinth; but though this is the case, the principle laid down in it holds good now.

1. Not for three or four times in the year those believers were to consider how God has prospered them, but weekly, and accordingly were to set aside regularly a portion out of this amount. Thus we, too, may not only act now, but should find it preferable both temporally and spiritually to do so. Generally speaking, there will be no difficulty in carrying out this principle; but should hindrances arise, God will enable us to overcome them if we really desire his help.

2. This exhortation is given to every class of believers—to the rich, the middle classes, and even to the very poor, for the very poorest persons also may, at some time, be particularly prospered by God, and thus have a little to give away, and that little God delights to accept if it be willingly and cheerfully laid down at his feet, as it becomes all to do who "know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ; for though he was rich, yet for our sakes he became poor, that we, through his poverty, might be rich."

3. It may be asked: "How much shall I give? What proportion of my prosperity shall I set aside for the poor or the Lord's work?" The answer is, No command is given regarding this. It is left to the measure of knowledge and grace which we have. God loves a cheerful giver, and therefore gives no command to us under the present dispensation. But if as yet the reader has not grace enough to stand before the Lord with everything that he possesses, let him fix upon a certain proportion of his income, however small, rather than leave what he gives to feeling and impression; only, what little he has determined on, that let him give, habitually, faithfully, and under all circumstances, and he will find himself so blessed spiritually and even temporally, that he will soon desire to give in larger proportion. Thus have thousands of systematic givers found it to be.

And a Vision Appeared to Paul in the Night.

(Acts 16: 9.)

'T was but a vision which one certain night
  Appeared to Paul, while he in Troas lay
In earnest prayer, that God would give him light
  To which new province he should make his way.
'T was but a vision, but no human act,
  No royal mandate, no ingenious thought
Has been more fruitful than this night's impact
  On Paul's keen mind and the transition which it wrought.

'T was but a vision, but it changed the fate
  Of ancient Greece with its philosophy,
The roadways of imperial Rome were made
  By it a conduit for the spread of liberty;
The temples of the gods from that hour came to nought
  And in its place the cross rose to the skies,
Who (but one God-inspired) could in that day have thought
  How wide a realm should from Paul's vision rise.
